

MARKETING wheel

You can't always control the volume in sales, but you can control what you spend money & time on. Marketing is the center of your business...it's the wheel that keeps you moving. You should have many marketing/lead sources. If a source you've spent time or money on isn't producing results: PIVOT.

