

The Marketing Mama's MILLIONAIRE MAKER CHECKLIST

DAILY INSTRUCTIONS

1. Best Practice: print & tape to your workspace OR make a binder of all 52 *Mama loves a binder & LIVES for a Planner
2. Complete tasks & check them off the list. If you don't complete, don't check! Measuring accurately will keep you accountable & we need that DATA to deliver the RESULTS. Utilize 2 & New Tracker for prospecting notes.
3. Repeat these not-so-sexy but oh-so-necessary daily habits to sell more real estate (& have more fun).
4. Be kind to yourself...but also don't settle for excuses. Eat the Nutella out of the jar & then get to gettin'!
5. Start each day with an INTENTIONAL EFFORT to be a PROFESSIONAL. Mornings should be steady & structured, gathering details & data to allow those afternoons/evenings/weekends, my Weekend Warriors, to be more flexible & fluid (without freaking out).
6. REMINDER! Always have a contingency plan mapped out. Working hours are hours for working.

	HOW'S THE MARKET	This is MARKET specific research/data tracking to help you be of better service to your current clients and/or your desired farm area/niche. This is where HOT SHEETS help! Daily effort to be the expert results in regular OPPORTUNITIES to actually BE THE EXPERT. Educated answers when asked (and we're always asked) are the open door to start opening doors (get it, 'cause we sell houses). They also save deals. PERIOD.
	CURRENT CONTRACTS	Separate from the Weekly Updates to Buyer/Seller (below), this item is a daily reminder to address the dates/appointments/contingencies/fires/etc. of your current contracts. It's your job to see the contract through. It's your job to keep the contract together. It's your job to stay in compliance. And if you don't do your job, you don't get paid. Be poised & professional with a PLAN. Reminder, there's always going to be something that comes up because each contract has different people & different scenarios. So, while you won't know all the answers all the time, take the time to get the answers & provide the DATA TO DELIVER RESULTS.
	CLIENTS IN QUEUE = AGENT CUE	This is line item specific to Buyers/Sellers who have agreed to work with you to buy/sell within 3 months. 	THE ORGANIZED AGENT	IF YOU DID IT, LOG IT. You will spend so much less time wondering what to do next if you know what you did last. Also use this time to prep for any appointments of the day/week ahead.
PURPOSEFUL PROSPECTING	REHEARSAL/PRACTICE	In SALES you perform at the level you practice. We are better prepared if we practice scripts with the right tone & canned responses. Be sure to practice the script for the type of prospecting you're doing on that day. KNOW YOUR AUDIENCE.
