Newsletter

Dear Families,
Happy February! I hope this note finds your family warm and well after the recent storm. We are so grateful for your continued partnership and support — it makes a real difference for our scholars each day.

Important Announcements

School will be in session on February 2, 2026. Please plan accordingly.

Parent–Teacher Conferences:

Date: February 6, 2026

Time: 8:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Open-house style — drop in at a time that works for you. We are excited to share the growth your scholar has made this year and to discuss ways we can help them grow even more.

E-Learning for ELA reminder: All ELA e-learning materials are always located in your scholar's Google Classroom account. If you have trouble locating anything or have questions, please contact anyone on the ELA team, and we will help you.

Celebrations from the Week

We made it through a major storm — thank you to families and staff who helped each other stay safe and supported.

Welcome, February! As we move toward the final weeks of winter, we are celebrating students' resilience and their continued hard work in class. We are grateful for the positive attitudes our scholars brought back to school this week.

Thank you for your ongoing support in helping your scholar thrive. We truly appreciate your time, involvement, and the trust you place in our school community.

Warmly,

The ELA/ELL Team
