Interesting. I had reached out to the justice department last week, asking that they inquire about Seashores ability to continue their mission without being certified as a child care site. So I wonder if they contacted her.

She has a lot of explaining to do and permitting if she wants to keep her non profit status.

I look forward to your report tomorrow.

Just spoke with Senitila... I wanted to report it went very well. We seem to have moved past the ugliness from before and are moving in a positive supportive direction.

More at council.
