

Sheila @ Dunn right daycare

As a working mom, I was faced with the extremely hard task of finding someone I was comfortable with to care for my infant daughter. I was lucky to have found Dunn Right Daycare. Not only did they care for and nurture my daughter from the time she was 6 weeks old, they became her second family. They became Auntie Sheila and Grandma Paula and they loved my daughter as if she was their own. I felt completely at ease dropping my daughter off each day.

To whom it may concern,

We are writing today in support of Sheila Dunn and Dunn Right Daycare. We are the parents of a 20-month boy who has been under the daily care of Sheila and her mother Paula for just over a year, since he was six months old.

During that time we have experienced the warmest, friendliest, most compassionate care for our son that we could imagine. We looked at a lot of day care centers before deciding to go with Dunn Right Daycare. But nothing compared to the comfort and welcoming atmosphere we found in the Dunn home. We are grateful to have Sheila Dunn overseeing the daily care of our son while we are at work full-time.

Between May 2009 and May 2010, I (Jennifer [REDACTED]) was unemployed and working various part-time jobs. That afforded me the opportunity to arrive early to pick up Derek or to stop in during the day periodically. I was always welcomed into the home and invited to participate in the children's activities. I especially enjoyed attending the holiday parties, including Valentine's Day and an Easter egg hunt.

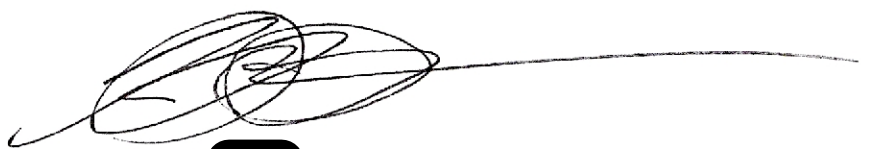

At all times Sheila and Paula have acted professionally and compassionately with our son. We have never experienced a negative situation that caused us to worry about his health or safety. Our son is more than happy to go to day care in the mornings, and frankly sometimes he's sad to have to go home at the end of the day. When we say "It's time to go to day care!" in the mornings, our son says "Day care!" and runs to the door with excitement. He loves his friends (the other children), and he loves Sheila and Paula. We are especially grateful for all the hugs that get doled out at Dunn Right Daycare, and the fact that Sheila and Paula ("Gramma") say "Love you" to our son. We couldn't dream of a more loving home for his day care.

Thank you for taking into consideration our feelings toward Dunn Right Daycare. We are both veteran newspaper journalists with college degrees and natural skepticism. However we have never had reason to question the care our son has received at Dunn Right Daycare.

Sincerely,

Jennifer [REDACTED]

RE: Greg Dunn

Many years ago, my child attended Daycare that was held at Greg and Sheila's house on [REDACTED] in Bakersfield. Their house became my daughter's second home. She loved coming in the morning and hated leaving in the evenings. My daughter is now turning 18 herself and is hoping that when she decides to start a family of her own that her children can be cared for by Greg and Sheila Dunn.

During these years we have become very good friends with the Dunn's. Greg is a wonderful person, father, and just an outstanding overall person. He is attentive, supportive and a stable influence. He enthusiastically participates in his own children's as well as others activities and constantly has a camera in his hand to document their growth and development. He has been a positive authority figure in his children's lives as well as in my daughter's.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Greg Dunn. I would like to inform you that Greg Dunn is a great father; he loves his children very much. He is always there for them, no matter if he is working long hours at his job. He will always make time to spend with them whether it is to read to them, play with them, or put them to bed. As his coworker, I know first hand that he works long hours, to make sure he succeeds at his job. He has the respect of all of his employees in which he manages. He cares a lot about other people and children. Most of all, he is a great friend to me, and has been there for my family and me. My son actually calls Greg his second dad that is how well they get along. I hope that this letter portrays the real Greg: a caring and passionate person when it comes to his family, friends, and employees. Thank you for your time and if you have any questions, please feel free to call me at any time.

Sincerely,

Brandon
