Sample Questions

- How can we constructively push back on religious nationalism?
- How does your faith tradition encourage believers to stay true to their convictions, even when facing opposition or the temptation to please others?
- What is one common misconception about your religion that you would like to correct here?

Sample Feedback

"all of the panelists were very eloquent and gave thoughtful responses to the questions."

"I understand that there are more things that connect us than divide us. We should find the good in everybody."

"I enjoyed the ability to shape the discussion through providing questions."

When we understand each other more...

...we hurt each other less
