

opened up walk-up windows and curbside pickup within 48 hours. We set up tables for outdoor dining. The other massive challenge that continues to challenge us is the confluence of higher-than-ever wages and shrinking workforce coupled with higher-than-ever food supply prices.

We however, have a great customer base that supports us, keeps us happy and motivated to continue serving our great community. Not just Colorado but all the travelers that find us intentionally or by happenstance, at the shop or at an event. We are blessed to have met so many great people, to share stories and our love for life.

We've been impressed with Rocky Mountain Wraps, but for folks who might not be as familiar, what can you share with them about what you do and what sets you apart from others?

We are known for great food most of which is served in a warm Pita with Love. Originally known for our Falafels and Hummus we have become loved for putting great ingredients into Pitas creating unique flavors like our Shrimp Po Boy or Nashville Chicken Wraps along with traditional favorites like Gyros and Philly Cheesesteak Wrap.

Kate has created a warm and intimate space that welcomes our regulars and new customers with a friendly and comfortable embrace. We are music lovers and our atmosphere and decoration reflect our personalities. From the TV and sound system playing live music recordings to the memorabilia, we have developed a warm and inviting environment that stimulates the mind as much as our great food stimulates the appetite.

We have become a favorite stop for people traveling to the mountains on 285 with a common story being they plan to eat with us every time they come to the mountains toMountain Bike, Hike, or Camp.

Our Lil Hiker Trailer has become a regular at music festivals, art festivals, and community events. From small weddings to large music festivals, we love bringing our food and vibe to the people.

We try and support our community and always offer discounts for Students and Teachers, Police and Military, and of course our Fire Fighters and other first responders.

What matters most to you?

We love that we have created an inviting and welcoming establishment that is part of our community. Our employees are local and for most, it is their first job, We enjoy training, mentoring and hopefully helping our employees grow as young adults into hard-working fun-loving successful adults.

We strive to offer great food, a great atmosphere, and a great example of teamwork to our customers, employees, and community.
