ReCreation Adventure Tours began more than 25 years ago by organizing church trips and building relationships within the travel industry. The need within churches and ministries for a partner to help handle the logistics of their trips was clear as our company grew rapidly. With the goal of continuing to serve those in ministry and make the logistics of travel easier and less expensive for them, we leveraged existing relationships with bus companies and airlines to expand beyond planning church trips to handling ground transportation, air travel for thousands of people each year.

Today we are a veteran and women owned, Christian company. We love Jesus and we are focused on the Gospel being proclaimed from the mountains in Colorado to the ends of the Earth, serving those that take it there.

The World is waiting to hear the Glory of the Lord proclaimed, and we are ready to help you get it there.

Our Story

At the heart of every journey is a mission to deepen your connection with God and His Word.

Bringing people together through shared experiences, fellowship, and lifelong friendships.

Ensuring a relaxing, worry-free journey with senior-friendly schedules and professional care.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all our customers for choosing to travel with ReCreation Adventure Tours. Your support and enthusiasm make every journey special, and we look forward to many more exciting adventures together in the future.

As pioneers in the travel industry, Marty and Suzy Ames delight in introducing you to the joys of seeing the world. Your travels are something special. With us, every minute is worry-free and filled with the joy of extraordinary moments in world-renowned locations. That's because we double and triple-check every detail so you can enjoy every spectacular moment. We don't just go the extra mile; we go the whole way with you and don't rest until you're safely home.

We delight in introducing travelers to the joys of seeing the world—then take it a step further by preparing moments to deepen your connection with our Creator. Every moment is spectacular on these world-class journeys.
