

Pioneer Woman Mercantile-Pawhuska Pioneer Woman Statue Tuesday, May 6, 2025

Trip Highlights:

Depart from Putnam City Baptist Church, 11401 N. Rockwell, on an Overland Charter Prevost Coach with 110 outlets, and TV-Video. Enjoy your plated lunch in a private banquet room. The meal is unique, true to Ree Drummond's style, and no one walks away hungry.

The Pioneer Woman Mercantile is a destination restaurant, bakery and store in Pawhuska, Oklahoma! Ree and Ladd Drummond spent years renovating the 100-year-old Osage Mercantile building on Main Street so that they could welcome visitors from near and far and give them a slice of small town hospitality. When the Pioneer Woman restaurant opened, there was a line around the block, and business hasn't slowed down.

"The Merc" has gorgeous goods, comfort foods, fresh-made pastries, delicious coffee, and plenty of fun to dish out, as well as unique and trendy products ranging from clothing to kitchen items. There is also an outlet store with prices reduced on many items. It will be a unique experience where you will enjoy shopping. The Pioneer Woman Mercantile is one of Oklahoma's newest and most favorite places to visit. It is a specialty store made for those who need that extra something in their lives. You may feel free to visit other local shops as well. Meet at Charlies Ice Crème Shop for a scoop of ice cream before departing.

Return home with a stop at the original Pioneer Woman Statue for a group photo. It is a larger-than-life monument to the overlooked women who braved Western expansion and broke down social barriers.
