

Certificate of Authenticity

For the purpose of providing additional proof of authenticity for the National Baseball Hall of Fame, I, Robin Yount, acknowledge and confirm that the Tanel 360° baseball shoes I had sent to Mike Tanel as a personal gift in October of 1993, are in fact, the very last game shoes I wore as a professional baseball player for the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club.

I attested to this fact by personally writing "LAST GAME SHOES!" and then signing and dating both shoes on March 23, 1999.

Today I further attest to the "significant lasts" that took place when wearing these shoes by personally listing them on the photograph of these "last game shoes" and then signing and dating both the photograph and this Certificate of Authenticity.

Acknowledged and confirmed as authentic:

Robin Yount

Date