

2008 Australian Canine Disc National Championships

Sunday, 4 May 2008 and Monday, 5 May 2008

South Pine Sports Association Complex, Eatons Hill QLD

Hosted by Brisbane and Region K9 Disc Club \(BARK\)

Event Type: National Championships Series

John Ford receives the Molly and Moss Trophy as the inaugural National Champion with his Border Collie, Jessie.

The Molly and Moss Trophy will be awarded each year to the highest scoring finalist in the Open Division at the Australian Canine Disc National Championships.

Molly's owner and handler, Liana Thomas is pictured handing the trophy to John, along with Head Judge Liz Buchanan.

In addition to enjoying the company of the Molly and Moss Trophy until the 2009 Australian Canine Disc National Championships, John and Jessie received a permanent trophy that John is holding in his left hand and a National Champion's prize of two days and one night's accommodation at Camp Tailwaggers. The prize was provided by Camp Tailwaggers who were an Event Sponsor at the inaugural Dogmania, which is where the National Championships were held.
