Tie for Third: After the two rounds of competition two teams were tied for third. As described in the competition information ties for placings would be separated by a sudden-death throw-off. However, one of the competitors elected to rest their dog instead of participate in the throw-off, so a sudden-death throw-off was not required in order to separate the placings.

Score Correction: During the announcement of results at the Presentations Ceremony a tie for fifth placing was announced. However, one of the team's scores was incorrectly totalled and that error has been rectified in these results.
