

Fairways Coronavirus Statement:

Sandra & I have been keeping a very close eye on the government guidelines in respect of the Coronavirus. It is such a difficult time for everyone and never in our wildest dreams would we have expected to be writing something like this!

Whilst we are in the lucky category of having the flexibility to work from home, the venues we work for are still open! We are continuing to support these venues and trying to do our utmost to help them through this difficult time. The travel, tourism & hospitality industry is set to be the hardest hit so our thoughts go out to all of our colleagues working in this area. Needless to say, the thanks and support that should be shown to the NHS, we can't even begin to imagine what they are going through.

Our main aim currently is looking after our bride & grooms who have their weddings booked within the next few weeks and ensuring their stress is limited as much as possible. We are doing what we can to follow the government advice and in daily contact if needed.

We, ourselves as a small business are only just 12 months in & there is no lie, we are worried in these uncertain times however we will be pushing on with the hope this uncertainty will pass soon. Should any businesses be looking to outsource their sales by all means get in touch....we are getting quite into the skype calls at present! Let's support one another and network where possible.

Whilst at the start of all this our outlook was 'it's the flu' now times are getting very scary. I (Kelly) have a 'vulnerable classed' child & my thoughts really do go out to other parents in this position – not knowing when to act!

If we can be of any help, please do get in touch.

Keep safe – stay safe

Kelly & Sandra xx
