Sweeney Todd

Rehearsal Report: 6

Wednesday, 7/15/26

Rehearsal Summary:	Today's rehearsal went very well! We just barely got through the staging that we needed to get through, save #19 The Ballad of Sweeney Todd, which we have tacked onto the beginning of tomorrow's rehearsal. A lot of good work is getting done, especially when it comes to costuming, where we got a significant number of fittings done today. We've got a lot to do tomorrow, but we are hoping there will be some more specific focus in the room as we work, and we will be able to chug through it very quickly. Great work, everyone!

- Nathan mentioned the railing posts seem like they may be taller than the drawing intended. I measured them at 3'6" - is this correct?
- Clarifying question - will there be an open hole in the largest platform for the slide/stairs, or will there be a trap of some sort?
