By utilizing the fundamentals of your Ancestral Wisdom, this intensive 6 month course will awaken your inherited wisdom and reconnect you to your inner gifts as you step into transformation. This course is filled with rich information around the layers of trauma, its effects and how to bring healing with intention, rituals, and nature's gifts. You will also learn how to integrate these teachings into all aspects of your life including your professional path.

We all have a story that needs mending and/or restructuring. Through these teachings you will receive support as you discover the freedom to reweave your own colorful tapestry of life filled with self expression. You will receive medicine and tools to unravel the entanglements from present life traumas, as well as the traumas that have been inherited (lineage, historical, family). Each month, within a supportive circle, you will receive rich information with guidance for you to heal and transform your story.

Rebozo Cerrada | Early- to Mid-October For Practitioners working with postpartum mothers and trauma For more information please send email to terezalamorena@gmail.com

The Rebozo Cerrada (closing wrap, postpartum binding) is a beautiful and nurturing way to hold the birth mother and reconnect her to the earth, herself and enhance her connection to the baby. It also supports, closes, and re-aligns the womb as it balances the body's temperature This sacred way of bringing closure and honor to the mother.

The Rebozo Cerrada (postpartum binding) is also beneficial for the recovery of body trauma experienced during the pregnancy, child birth as well as other traumatic experiences. This method helps integrate balance the nervous system as it helps to contain and restores energy.
