NEWS FROM THE EDITOR

The rally at the Sportsman Club RV Park in Joshua Tree was interesting. Despite the heat with days over 100 degrees and despite the fluctuating power, the comradery was just great. Plenty of evening games to keep us entertained and great food including the Thursday evening heavy hors d'oeuvres with lots of dishes brought by the members. The catered dinner from Dickies was wonderful.

We just finished our largest even, Oktoberfest, today at Golden Village RV Resort. It was perfect weather enjoyed by the nearly 200 attendees with over 100 rigs. I have a few photos in this issue but the November-December issue will spotlight our Oktoberfest event.

There are ten (10) days left for you to reserve your place at the November Rally at Pechanga RV Resort in Temecula which is being held the week before Thanksgiving, November 20-24. See the registration flyer at in this issues of the Spot-Lite. Send it in and join in the fun and traditional Thanksgiving Dinner.

The 32nd Annual Western Area Rally is being held on January 8-12 at the Riverside County Fair and Date Festival Grounds in Indio. A copy of the registration flyer is attached to this issue.

Start your 2020 Rally planning with the locations and dates that are listed in this newsletter.
