THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Primera Lectura: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel discute el fin del mundo, un tiempo cuando los muertos se levantarán y todos serán juzgados. Advierte que algunos serán “la vergüenza y el horror eternos”. Pero también promete que algunos vivirán por siempre, y los sabios brillarán para guiar a otros a la justicia.

Segunda Lectura: Hebreos 10:11-14, 18

Sacerdotes periódicamente ofrecían sacrificios que no podían quitar el pecado. Pero a través del sacrificio de Jesús nuestros pecados fueron perdonados, y no hay necesidad de otras ofrendas.

Evangelio: San Marcos 13:24-32

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos que se verían muchas señales antes del fin del mundo. Les explicó que la tierra desaparecería

Palabra del Evangelio por Rev. William J.

“In those days, I, Daniel, heard this word of the Lord: ‘At that time there shall arise Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people; It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since the nations began until that time. At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book... But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever.’... ‘And they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds.’”

We are living in the end times. The prophecy of Daniel and the words of Jesus are reminding us of what is yet to happen. It leads me to ask many questions. Am I prepared to meet the Lord? Is my name written in the book of life? What questions about my Christian life is the Lord going to ask me? How can I respond?

Remembering that our God is a God of mercy and justice, with the church, we are bringing the Christian year to a close. It is the end time! Am I closer to the Lord today than one year ago? Have I made progress or am I just ‘hanging in there?’ Take a moment to answer these questions. His words will not pass
