

About us

Michael Jannetta fell in love with Spanish tapas culture while studying abroad in Spain. Michael teamed up with his friend and coworker Robert Lombardi to launch and operate the Sala restaurant concept, hiring Spain Top Chef contestant Barbara Amoros along the way. Sala Gourmet was inspired by their passion for artisanal Spanish Croquettes. Our Croquettes utilize the finest ingredients and provide a no prep offering to add value and quality to your menus. Whether you offer as an appetizer, side dish, or for your catering spread you can feel great about the quality of the product and the margin for your business.
