

Central Girls Run Away From Vikings

LEBANON TWP. — Hunterdon Central's girls basketball team chalked up an easy 72-46 win over the first year Voorhees Vikings on Friday afternoon in a DRC girls' basketball game.

Lori led three Central girls in double figures with 18 points. Bev Cromeck hit for 14 and Melissa Mantz added 11 more in the win.

Jill VanBodegom-Smith hit for 14 and Heidi Hintz scored 11 for the Vikings.

Earlier in the week Central had blitzed South Hunterdon, 55-34, with Daniel scoring 16 points.

The Vikings lost a tough game to Warren Hills, 57-49 earlier in the week. The Vikings were tied at the half at 0-0, but Warren Hills pulled away in the second half. Donna Hall and Heidi Hintz both scored 14 points in the loss, while Jen Crombie scored 10.

HUNTERDON CENTRAL

Birkenback 4-8, Cromeck 6-2-14, Daniel 18, Mantz 4-3-11, Slomka 3-2-8, Troegner 5, Fisher 2-0-4, Grover 1-0-2, Sedakas 1-0-2, Bidino 0-0-0, Fritz 0-0-0, Benson 0-0-0; totals 16-72

VOORHEES

VanBodegom-Smith 7-0-14, Hintz 5-1-11, Hall 8, Crombie 0-2-2, Campbell 0-0-0, Cabot 1, Graves 1-1-3, Powell 1-0-2, Pignatello 1; totals 21-46

Hunt. Cent. 15...15...26...16...72
Voorhees 8...6...15...17...46

WHAT THE DEVIL? —says Voorhees' Jill VanBodegom-Smith(12) as she's surrounded by four of Hunterdon Central's players during their game on Friday afternoon. Bev Cromeck(21), Terry Troegner(15), Sally Grover(32) and Lori Daniel(hidden) are the Devils in the picture. Central rolled 72-46 in this game but was edged by North Hunterdon on Saturday, 45-43. (Jim Dalton Photo).

