

Staff Photo by Barbara Hawking

WINNER in Monday night's Hunterdon County Junior Miss Pageant was Lynne Thompson, center. First runner-up was Lisa Tedeschi, left. Second runner-up was Carleen Kanopka. Miss Thompson now is eligible to participate in the state pageant, which will be held on Feb. 7, 1976, at Cherry Hill High School.

County Junior Miss Crowned

Hunterdon County has a new Junior Miss, Lynne A. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Thompson of Whitehouse Station and a senior at Hunterdon Central High School.

Runners-up in the Hunterdon County Junior Miss Pageant, held Monday night at Whitehouse School are Lisa Tedeschi of Whitehouse Station, first runner-up, and Carleen J. Kanopka of Clinton Township, second runner-up.

Miss Tedeschi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tedeschi, is a senior at Hunterdon Central High School. Miss Kanopka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kanopka, is a senior at North Han-terdon Regional High School.

The eight girls who participated were judged on scholastic achievement, a judges' interview, youth fitness, poise and appearance and creative and performing arts.

As winner of the pageant, which was sponsored by the East Hunterdon Jaycee Wives, Miss Thompson was the recipient of a $500 scholarship and a gift from Flemington Fur.

Also named Best Scholastic and best in Creative and Performing Arts, she also received a $25 scholarship bond and sweater and earrings, respectively.

For her part in the Creative and Performing Arts category she gave an organ solo.

At Hunterdon Central Miss Thompson is a member of National Honor Society, drill squad, Echo yearbook staff, senior and junior class councils, ski and drama clubs, plays, musicals and youth groups. Her hobbies include playing the organ, reading, writing, tennis and swimming.

As first runner-up Miss Tedeschi received a $150 scholarship bond.

At Hunterdon Central she's active in drama, record and ecology clubs, school play and musical, and tutoring at Skillman Training School. Her hobby is dancing, jazz, ballet and modern.

Second runner-up Carleen

Kanopka received a $100 scholarship bond.

She is active at North Hunterdon in gymnastics, French honor society, dance and prom committees, spring concert, Performing Arts evening, South Hunterdon and Trenton Teen Arts festivals. Her hobbies are art and dance, ballet, tap, modern and jazz.

The other participants in the pageant were Tammy Washburn, Linda Lee Pasko, Nancy E. Gehrs, Ingrid Hall and Betty H. James, all students at Hunterdon Central High School.

America's Junior Miss Program is a nationwide program to recognize, reward and encourage excellence in young people.