

And Gaydosh Blanks North

Reichenbach No-hits South

Two of the premiere pitchers in the DRC last year gave evidence on Monday that they are ready to pick up where they left off last season.

Doug Reichenbach, who won seven games for Hunterdon Central a year ago, no-hit host South Hunterdon in the opener for both teams on Monday en route to the Red Devils' 14-0 win, while Rich Gaydosh, who pitched Phillipsburg Catholic to a sectional title last year, outpitched Al Wardell host of North Hunterdon, 1-0.

Reichenbach allowed only three Eagle batters to reach base. He struck out nine and walked three.

In the meantime, the Red Devils collected 13 hits off two South Hunterdon pitchers. Twelve of them were singles. One was a triple by Mike Notarangelo.

In addition to pitching the no-hitter, Reichenbach paced the Red Devils at the plate, collecting three hits in four trips. Notarangelo and Mark Littlefield chipped in with two safeties each.

Leading 3-0 going into the fifth inning, the Red Devils broke the game open with an 11-run uprising. They combined seven hits — all of them singles — and five walks during the eruption.

Collecting two runs batted in each were Notarangelo, Reichenbach, Littlefield, and Jeff Schapley.

Overall, Notarangelo and Reichenbach collected three RBI's each.

Gaydosh and Wardell hooked up in a pitchers' duel at North Hunterdon. Each one of them yielded only two hits. But the Terriers got both of theirs in the fifth inning, the frame when they pushed the lone run of the game across the plate.

With two outs Bob Mugavero doubled and stayed on second while Mark Simonetta walked. They both moved up a base as Wardell walked Dana Rounsaville to load the bases.

Walt Kuntsler then singled home the decisive run.

Bob Becker, and Joe VanHorn picked up the hits for North Hunterdon. Both of them were singles.

Gaydosh struck out three and walked none, while Wardell fanned seven and walked six.
