

Reichenbach, Guidotti, Athletes For Year

The spring presentations for the Gino's Athlete of the Month were made recently to four Hunterdon Central students.

In addition Doug Reichenbach and Sandy Guidotti were named Athletes of the Year for their respective contributions during the 1975-76 sports seasons.

Reichenbach received two Athlete of the Month awards this spring being named in both April and June.

His April award was based on a no-hit, no-run game against South Hunterdon. Hunterdon Central won the affair 14-0. Reichenbach was 7-0 for the month.

In June the senior ended his career with a 10-0 record in 1976. He pitched the Red Devils to the Delaware River Conference crown and helped at bat as Central topped North Hunterdon in the final game.

Guidotti, only a sophomore, received the award in April for her record breaking track and field performances in the 880 and 110 hurdles.

In June Guidotti placed second in the girls' state meet to cop the Gino's award a second time.

Other Hunterdon Central athletes honored this spring were Cort Eble and Lori Tucholski.

Eble was the May winner for his efforts on the Red and Black golf team.

The talented junior won the Delaware River Conference individual gross award with a 75 and placed second in the Hunterdon County High School tourney with a like score.

Tucholski, who started almost every game for the softball team, posted a 5-3 record during the month of May to gain the Gino's prize.

Tucholski is also a strong hitter as she batted near .400 for the month with a pair of home runs.
