

With in the ticipate dition taking are in

GINO'S ATHLETES OF THE MONTH during the winter sports season at Hunterdon Central were (l.-r.) Daryl Kanach, Bev Cromack, Lori Daniel, Billy Littlefield, Joe Mauro, manager of Gino's, Jerri Hegel, Sandy Guidotti, and John Mulligan. Kanach (twice) and Mulligan got theirs for wrestling; Danile and Cromack, girls' basketball; Hegel and Guidotti, winter track; and Littlefield, boys' basketball. Gino's awards a boy and girl athlete of each month. Soon the athlete of the year award will be decided.

Raise $3,000 Through YMCA 'Sink Or Swim'

The 32 swimmers who gathered at Camp Carr last weekend raised more than $3,800 in pledges at the Hunterdon YMCA's third annual "Sink or Swim" fund raiser.

Jeanne Vollmann, chairwoman of the Special Projects committee which sponsored the event, said swimmers swam between one and 170 laps to help raise money for the Y's proposed indoor pool. She asked all pledges be sent to the YMCA, 166 Main St., Flemington, by July 31 so that swimmers can become eligible for the special awards to be distributed later this summer.

Members of the special projects are Jeanne Vollmann and Rachel Compton, Clinton, Doris Hurban and Nancy Britton, Flemington, and Pinsky McElowney, Whitehouse.

Softball Club Seeks Foes

The Majors Marauders would like to challenge any local softball team, slo-pitch or fast, to meet them for games.

The Marauders, who boast names such as Chuck McClean, Ted Kovi, Al Rogers, and Bruce Pedrick, would like to book games for either Wednesdays or Sundays.

Any representative of a team that is interested should call McClean (782-5000) any day except Wednesday after 1:00 p. m.

Benefit Horse Show Saturday

The area-wide support being given the Somerset Hills Benefit Horse Show promises a gala event on Saturday, June 19. Show Committee Chairman Jean Spann reported today.

Donors of championship trophies and class awards, as well as sponsors for all 24 classes, were announced this week for the fund-raising event to aid the Somerset County Unit of the New Jersey Association for Retarded Citizens.

Gill-St. Bernards' show grounds in Gladstone will be the scene of the benefit. Entry deadline is June 13.

Judges will be Miss Jane Bradshaw of Pittstown, an American Horse Show Association recognized judge who is associated with Squire's Lea Stable; and Mrs. Thomas Loughlin of Boston, Mass., an experienced judge who has been especially active in pony club shows in the Northeast.

Four championship awards and a trophy and six ribbons in each class will highlight the competition. The championship trophies will be awarded in the Children's Hunter, Novice Hunter, Limit-Open Hunter and Pleasure Horse divisions.

Donors of trophies, prize lists and ribbons include area residents, business houses, stables and organizations, Mrs. Spann said.

Special features of the day will include a demonstration by the Somerset Hills Handicapped Riders Club during the luncheon break and drawings for gift certificates and "An Evening In New York," a prize valued at $220.

Operating under A.H.S.A. rules, the show will open with a seven-class Equitation Division for children.

Children's Hunter, Novice Hunter, Limit-Open Hunter and Pleasure Horse Divisions will follow in that order. Special classes will conclude the day's events.

Luncheon will be served by the Horse Show Committee of Peapack Reformed Church.

Show Committee members assisting Mrs. Spann are Lynn Berenger, Octavia Brown, Helen Louise Christian, Jeanette Gordon, Eleanor Howland, Nan Paterniti, Susal Plass and Russ Rayot.

Amwell Stars Are Announced

Last Friday evening at the Annual Hens and Roosters Game of the Amwell Valley Little League, the League's All-Stars were announced as follows: Chris Koval, Mike Nicoletti, Jim Vitelli, Mike Giacquinto, Donat-Judy, John Robachefski, Joe Brand, Richard Quigley, David Quigley, John Sowian, Chris Castagna, Chris Chesar, Ricky Agans, Mark Wright, Brad Parker, Clint Coons, and honorary member, Norbert Hirst.

The scores for the games of the week were:

Dockettes 8, Danberry 22; Strober 8, Oddfellows 11; Pharmacy 11, Hunt Agency 10.

The league standings to date are as follows:

	W	L
Old York Inn	6	1
Danberry's Garage	6	3
Oddfellows	4	3
Dockettes	3	4
Strober & Sons	4	5
Ringoes Pharmacy	3	6
Hunt Realty	2	6

Hunterdon County Records

(Boys All-Time)

Event	Name	School	Mark	Year
100	Jim Mayo	HC	10.1	1972
	Allen Hamlin	DV	10.1	1972
	Ed Baumann	NH	10.1	1974
220	Nick Fleming	DV	22.4	1959
440	Ed Baumann	NH	50.8	1974
880	Daye Sherer	NH	1:55.5	1976
1-Mile	Gary Herrigel	MH	4:20.0	1976
2-Mile	Rich McNally	NH	9:20.0	1976
Relay	Torn Di Bianca	HC	3:27.0	1969
	Bob Darling
	Mike Santo
	Paul Culver
Shot	Howard Lophshire	HC	54-2	1967
Discus	Ronald Madden	HC	166-10	1967
Javelin	Gary Macia	HC	191-8	1967
	Paul Lascelle	NH	6-2 1/2	1976
High Jump	Allen Hamlin	DV	22-1 1/2	1972
Long Jump	Bruce Wodder	NH	14-9	1975
Pole Vault	Allen Hamlin	DV	14-4	1972
120 HH	Julius Simon	DV	40.1	1974
330 IH

Bassmasters Hold Fishing Tournament

The Pioneer Bassmasters of Flemington held their first bass tournament at Clinton Run Reservoir in Spruce recently.

The tourney was won by Bob Davison. Second place was captured by Rich Davison.

Other members of the Pioneer Bassmasters who participated were Lou Nemeth, Roger Case, Dennis Hildebrandt, and Harry Cunliffe.