

$JACK White Paper

the legendary cat with the hat meme coin

1. Introduction

The crypto universe loves a good meme—and nothing embodies viral fun quite like Jack Spicer, the black and white cat with a cowboy hat and a scarf, beloved by millions on Instagram (@spicerjackjack) and TikTok (@spicerjack). $JACK is a community-driven meme coin born from the legend of this iconic internet feline, designed to unite fans, meme lovers, and crypto adventurers for a wild, rewarding ride.

2. Vision & Mission

Vision:

To build the most spirited, creative, and engaged meme coin community around the legendary cowboy cat, Jack Spicer.

Mission:

$JACK aims to spread laughter, creativity, and rewards through viral memes, collaborative projects, and community-driven initiatives, all while celebrating the unique charm of Jack Spicer.

3. The Legend of Jack Spicer

Jack Spicer is not your ordinary cat—he's a social media superstar, instantly recognizable by his dashing cowboy hat and scarf. With millions of views and followers on Instagram and TikTok, Jack's playful adventures and cowboy swagger have inspired a global fanbase. $JACK brings this viral energy into the crypto world, offering fans a new way to connect, create, and celebrate their favorite cowboy cat.

4. Launch & Growth

$JACK was officially launched on the Moonshot platform on August 14, 2025 with an initial market cap of $5,000. As first-time meme creators and amateurs at best, we are proud that nearly all of our growth has been community-driven and organic, fueled by passionate supporters and meme lovers rallying around Jack Spicer.

- Current Market Cap: $27,100
- Number of Holders: 159
- 24hr Trading Volume: $6,200

Our grassroots efforts, especially through our X (Twitter) account @spicerjackcat and Instagram @memecoinjack, have helped build a welcoming, engaged, and loyal community.

5. Tokenomics

- Token Name: Jack Spicer
- Symbol: $JACK
- Blockchain: Solana (SPL Token)
- Total Supply: 1,000,000,000 ($1 billion JACK)
- Initial Distribution:
 - Creator Shares: 30% (these coins will never be sold by the creators)
 - The remaining 70% of the supply is available for open market trading on Solana-based decentralized exchanges (DEXs) via the Moonshot platform.
- Transaction Tax:
 - The transaction tax on $JACK is determined by Moonshot and may vary depending on trading volume and platform policies. For the most up-to-date information, please refer to Moonshot's official documentation or our community channels.
- Utility: $JACK is a purely community-driven meme coin with no specific technical utility.

Transparency Guarantee:

30% of the total supply is allocated as creator shares. These coins will never be sold by the creators, providing transparency and protecting the community from "pump and dump" or "rug pull" scenarios. This guarantees the long-term integrity of the project.

6. Technology

$JACK is a Solana SPL token, leveraging Solana's high-speed, low-cost, and scalable blockchain infrastructure. $JACK's contract is open-source and transparent. While it does not offer advanced smart contract features, its core strength lies in its community-focused design and transparent, fair token distribution.

7. Community Value & Problem Solved

Many meme coins are launched as quick-profit schemes, leaving novice traders vulnerable to significant losses when creators or insiders "rug pull" the project. $JACK is different:

- Community-Driven: Every major decision and initiative is shaped by the community, not a central authority.
- No Rug Pulls: The creator/team shares will never be sold, ensuring that early supporters and everyday holders are protected from insider dumps.
- Long-Term Vision: $JACK is not just a token, but the start of a brand—laying the foundation for future Jack Spicer projects, collaborations, and creative opportunities.
- A Pathway for Brand Development: As $JACK gains momentum, it will serve as a launchpad for developing and expanding the Jack Spicer brand, benefiting all holders and supporters.

$JACK stands for fairness, transparency, and giving the meme coin world a project that can be trusted and enjoyed for the long term.

10. Team

The $JACK team chooses to remain anonymous at this time.

All communication with the creators will be conducted exclusively through our official social media channels.

11. Legal Disclaimer

$JACK is a meme-based cryptocurrency and should be considered a high-risk, speculative asset. This document is not financial advice. Do your own research. Cryptocurrency investments are volatile and may result in loss of capital. $JACK is not directly affiliated with the social media accounts or owners of Jack Spicer unless otherwise stated.

12. Ecosystem Vision

Once $JACK is viral and the Jack Spicer brand has a solid foundation, we will launch the Jack Spicer Ecosystem. This ecosystem will introduce additional characters that interact with Jack Spicer, creating a richer narrative and brand universe. The ecosystem will focus on the release of NFT collections featuring Jack and these new characters. By building a strong NFT-driven community and brand, we aim to create a powerful and enduring presence in the meme and crypto space.
