SCRATCHINGS/REFUNDS

Competitors can scratch/edit their own entries via their Nominate profile. This can be done up until the advertised nomination closing date for the event. You can also process your own refund until this time.
NOTE: A doctor's or vet certificate MUST BE supplied to receive a refund after the closing date AND must be emailed to nominations@dwhdc.com.au before the event starts.
 NO REFUNDS can be issued for scratchings after 7am Friday of the event
Should this event be postponed due to bad weather or any other reason acceptable to the committee, nominations already accepted will carry over.

VOLUNTEER ROSTER

At the time of nominating, riders will need to select a job that they will do over the weekend. The job will be limited to a 1-2 hour shift. A job allocation list will be emailed out before the event and put up around the grounds during the competition. Please ensure you choose a job that you will be available to do.
If you are selected for a job & you can no longer do it, it is YOUR responsibility to find a replacement.

FIRST AID & GROUNDS LEVIES

A First Aid Levy of $8 per ride + a per event $5 Grounds Fee will be charged when nominating.

ATTIRE

As per the ASCA Rules & Regulations.
HATS: Australian style hat to be worn whilst competing.
HELMETS: Optional, although it is recommended, they be worn during the cattle work phase.
All riders under the age of 18 years are required to wear a riding helmet when mounted on a horse anywhere on the grounds at and ASCA affiliated event.
SHIRT: Long sleeve button up shirt with a collar, with the sleeves buttoned down. TROUSERS: Jeans or moleskins, no jodhpurs
TIE: Must be worn. Women may wear a tidy scarf to replace a tie.
BOOTS: Riding boots must be worn. Riding boots that enable the foot to come free of the stirrup iron and prevents the foot from sliding through the stirrup iron. Covered shoes should be worn whenever handling horses.

STALLIONS

Are not to be ridden or handled by anyone under the age of 18 years at any time during a competition, either on the grounds or in the competition arena.

GEAR

NOT ALLOWED: Tie downs or martingales of any description, nosebands or any other artificial device. SADDLES: ASCA have allowed the use of horned saddles in this small arena style event only.
BITS: In all phases a snaffle bit must be used. This must be free rolling, loose ring snaffle with a single join (two- piece bit) with a smooth mouthpiece (a sweet iron may be used). DISCLAIMER: It is the responsibility of the competitor to ensure they have the correct gear & adhere to the rules & regulations.
Check ASCA Rules at https://australianstockmanschallenge.com.au/about/rules-regulations/

DISPUTES COMMITTEE

Any disputes must be lodged within 2 hours of the completion of the class or incident.
A disputes officer will gather as much information as possible from the rule book, the complainant, and witnesses, or any other sources to make a decision.

GENERAL RULES

- A two-phase competition comprising of Dry Work and Cattle Work.
- The event is open to all breeds of horses bred anywhere in the world.
- The event is open to all sexes.
- Horses and riders may compete in more than one division provided they are eligible.
- 1 horse 1 rider per class except for the Mini Class.
- It is the competitor's responsibility to have their information correct and to enter the correct/eligible class.
- It is the responsibility of the competitor to ensure their equipment is correct, in good repair, and is correctly fitted.
- At an event, the horse and rider status will be as per the beginning of the event.
- All nominations MUST be paid at the time of nominating.
- Competitors must adhere to the draw.

ARENA CATTLE RULES

- One beast to be supplied for each competitor, with the judge able to reject a beast, or reward a re-run where the beast is deemed to be unsuitable. This is achieved via one sounding of the whistle/horn/whip.
- At any time during the work, if there is an instance where the judge feels that it is in the best interest of animal welfare and competitor safety, the judge can terminate a run by sounding the whistle or bell twice.
- A re-run will be awarded at the judge's discretion, where the run was terminated due to no fault of the competitor.
- A competitor may choose to continue to work their beast after the whistle is blown, after which no additional re-run can be awarded.
- The small arena wet work is scored out of a possible 100 points.
- Credit will be awarded for always maintaining control of the beast, with position, pace and control plus overall eye appeal contributing to the points awarded for each section. Points will be deducted for loss of control of beast, and excessive use of the arena fence.
- In the event of a beast bleeding, a rerun may be awarded where the judge believes the blood was not caused by the competitor.

Boxing

Recommended for beginner riders and horses but can be used for all levels. This option consists of holding a single beast on the short end of the arena for a period of thirty (30) seconds.
The competitor shall ride into the arena, face the cattle entry gate and signal for their beast to be let into the arena. The beast shall be controlled on the entry end of the arena for an enough time to demonstrate the horse's ability to "hold" the beast. If the beast does not immediately challenge the horse, the rider shall move in on the beast to demonstrate the horse's ability to drive the beast across and block the beast on the entry fence.

Boxing, Drive Down Fence to Opposite End of Arena

There are three (3) parts to this option:
- Boxing
- Setting up the beast and driving it down the fence to the opposite end of the arena
- Boxing at the opposite end of the arena.

Boxing: The rider shall ride into the arena, face the cattle entry gate and signal for their beast to be let into the arena. The beast shall be controlled on the entry end of the arena for enough time to demonstrate the horse's ability to hold the beast. If the beast does not immediately challenge the horse, the rider shall move in on the beast to demonstrate the horse's ability to drive and block the beast on the fence.
Drive down the fence: After the beast has been controlled on the entry end of the arena, the rider shall set the beast up for driving down the side of the arena. When coming out of the corner, the horse shall be close enough to the beast to demonstrate control with the beast against the fence. This distance and control should be maintained for approximately ½ to ¾ of the length of the arena. The rider will then stop and release the beast and move the horse to cut it out again.
Boxing at opposite end of the arena: The competitor will again control or "hold" the beast for the remainder of time at the end of the arena to demonstrate the horse's ability to control the beast.
Ride to 50 seconds or a time designated by the committee
