Our Name

Sapati Ingera means “all the children are well.” It is the desirable response to the Swahili greeting Kasserian Ingera or “and how are the children?” This greeting and response highlights the importance the Massai place on the wellbeing of their children. A society flourishes only when its most vulnerable members “children” are well cared for.

Our Mission

Our mission at Sapati Ingera is to encourage, entertain, and empower the most vulnerable members of our community- our youth.
