

THE JCMI MESSENGER

MAY/JUNE 2021

IYAR – TAMMUZ 5781

WORSHIP SCHEDULE

Services conducted by Cantorial Soloist Hari Jacobsen
Along with Members from the JCMI Congregation
Friday Evenings at 7:30 PM

Attend in person or via Live Streaming from the JCMI Website

Getting (Back) Up Close and Personal

Since March of last year, our Congregational life has perforce been constrain-ed by the global Covid pandemic. Particularly in the age cohort that makes up almost all of our membership, our Board of Directors prudently and proper-ly decided that it would be not only unwise but immoral to continue holding public assemblages inside our building. So it's been a long time since we were all together.

To hold together our suddenly far-flung membership, we implemented "distance-davvening" by Zoom in March of 2020, then activated our newly installed live-stream system so that our members could at least see me and Cantor Jacobsen on the bimah of our beautiful synagogue for High Holy Day worship on Rosh haShanah and Yom Kippur. We've continued to live-stream Shabbat services from the synagogue all year... but even though worshippers on one-click feed from the JCMI website pray together from downloaded copies of the "Satellite Siddur" that Cantor Jacobsen and I assembled for the purpose, all are wistfully longing for the time that someone would say "ollie ollie in free" and we could be together again.

That time is now here. Notwithstanding that our homecoming will perforce be guarded and cautious, live Shabbat worship at JCMI resumes on the first Friday evening of May. We are going to emerge, carefully and tentatively, from our sheltering-in-place safe places and our social-distancing dens, to gather in person for Shabbat worship together once more starting May 07.

To reflect the unique circumstances that continue to define "the new normal," for the immediate future our synagogue seats are going still to be pointedly set up at a safe distance from each other (although couples, and others from your household "bubble," will of course be able to sit together). And as in most public venues, like stores and restaurants where we mingle with other people, everyone gathering together for worship will need to be masked while inside the Synagogue. In addition, our ushers warmly greeting arrivals at the door will be making sure that you're not too warm, by checking temperatures to assure no one has a fever.

Moreover, since our Board are still wise enough and moral enough to continue to take responsibility for the welfare of everyone coming into our shared house, Temple members are being asked to furnish the Office beforehand with a copy of their Covid vaccination as a prerequisite to showing up at the synagogue on Friday nights. Being on "The List" is like showing your ticket on Yom Kippur, which demonstrates that you have proudly undertaken your commitment to the financial well-being of the Synagogue— except that in this case it's all about demonstrating our commitment to each other's personal well-being and safety.

Those protocols (and other associated policies allowing us to gather again safely) are under ongoing review and refinement by our Blue-Ribbon Committee on Synagogue Re-Opening. As circumstances change, and new public-health procedures are announced over the Summer months, be sure to watch for ongoing communications from the Temple Office during the weeks to come as we move forward together. Cantor Jacobsen will be conducting Shabbat worship solo, for now, with the occasional support of volunteer lay leaders, since I am off duty until S'lichot. So I'll proverbially "see you in September"... but at that time I look forward to seeing you live and in person, for a change!

Even "off-season," the Rabbi is at your disposal any time by voice or text to 954-798-6037 or e-mail RabbiMarkGross@gmail.com.

The popular song, “Feelin’ Good”, has the refrain: “It’s a new dawn. It’s a new day. It’s a new life for me. And I’m feelin’ good.” And for me: After fifteen months, our daughter is home for a one-month visit. We can finally travel to wherever we want to be in this country. The temple is about to begin reopening. And I’m feelin’ really, really good.

And as if that were not enough to feel good about, on Friday, May 7th, our guest presenter will be Dr. Greg Poland. That would be Dr. Greg Poland, the award-winning faculty member of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, who, along with his Vaccine Research Group team, studies the immunogenetics of vaccine response in adults and children. Slightly particularly relevant, his topic for us will be “COVID, Loss, Human Behavior, and God”. Nice.

Also special that Shabbat evening, Steve Goldenberg will be co-leading the service for us. That would be attorney, JCMI past president, current JCMI board member, former co-leader of JCMI Erev Shabbat services, and all-around wonderful guy (just to name a few), Steve Goldenberg. And again, I’m feelin’ really, really good.

Surely, I’m not suggesting that all is well with the world. We all know, all too well, that that is far from the case. However, there are many wonderful things around each of us. When we conclude a Torah service, we read “Eits chayim hi...” (“It is a tree of life ...”). In fact, we read, “It is a tree of life for those who hold fast to it ...”; just as we should hold fast to those things that are good – much less those things that are very, very good.

While we will miss Rabbi Gross for the upcoming four months, that gives his return something for us to look forward to. It also gives us time to reflect on how fortunate we are to have him. We have much to appreciate and much we can look forward to.

In the opening reading of the Torah, “B’reishit”, repeatedly we read the words, “ki tov” (“it was good”); time after time, “ki tov”. Whether the words be “ki tov” or “it was good” or “feelin’ good”, may we hold fast to the goodness in all we see, say, and do.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JOIN US FOR SHABBAT SERVICES IN THE SYNAGOGUE MAY 7

To assure the safety of our Congregants, the Board of Directors closed the Synagogue for indoor activities March 12, 2020. At a later meeting, the Board included restricting outdoor activities. We quickly initiated Zoom and installed live streaming equipment in hopes of keeping our JCMI family close. We became techies!

I did not believe the Board, including myself, had the resources to determine when we should reopen the Synagogue. I organized a Task Force to guide us. I cannot offer enough praise to the congregants who stepped up and served with vigor, meeting regularly during the year and studying the comprehensive research supplied by Dr. Paul Krueger and Dr. Jonathan Greenfield.

Our Task Force was comprised of Stan Alliker, Mitch Braun, Heather Greenfield, Dr. Jonathan Greenfield, Steve Goldenberg, Rabbi Gross, Marty Holtz, Cantor Hari Jacobsen, Estie Karpman, Dr. Paul Krueger, Dolores Siegel, and Frank Weinberg. In addition, we had the advice of, friend to the Synagogue, Dr. Gregory Poland* on how best to keep the congregation safe. Recently, he gave the go-ahead to reopen and how best to proceed.

As we prepare to reconvene Friday, May 7, we have used every protection to keep the congregation safe and worry-free. Thank you to House Chair Marty Holtz and staff member Orlando Caceres for ensuring the temple is ready. I encourage everyone to join me for this important moment with Cantorial Soloist Hari Jacobsen alongside Steve Goldenberg serving as our lay leader.

BUILD ME A SANCTUARY THAT I MAY DWELL WITH THEM
EXODUS

*Dr. Poland is a physician and vaccinologist. He is the Mary Lowell Leary professor of medicine at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, as well as the director of the Mayo Clinic's Vaccine Research Group. He is also the editor-in-chief of the medical journal Vaccine.

JCMI REOPENING ATTENDANCE GUIDELINES

JCMI requests that each of the guidelines below is followed in order to provide members and guests the utmost safety and peace of mind. If you feel that you are at risk in any way, please continue to worship with us using the live-streaming link on the JCMI website:

www.marcojcmi.com

1. The synagogue will initially open only for members and those who reside in a member's home and guests that can prove vaccination.
2. All attendees must have completed the full complement of vaccinations two weeks prior to the event being attended. Proof of vaccination will be required. Preferably, members will pre-register by sending copies of their COVID vaccination certificate to the synagogue office. Alternatively, all attendees can bring their certificates that night. No one will be admitted without proof of vaccination and a two-week waiting period for full immunity to be reached.
3. Attendees must be free of any infectious illness.
4. Temperatures will be taken at the door. Those with a temperature equal to or greater than 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit are not permitted to attend the service and are encouraged to see their health care provider.
5. ALL attendees must wear proper masks that fit snugly around the nose and chin. Both the mouth and nose must be covered. Bandanas, gaiters and other makeshift coverings are unacceptable. Masks will be available at the door for those who do not bring a mask with them. Information on proper use of masks is available at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/prevent-getting-sick/cloth-face-cover-guidance.html>.
6. Six-foot social distancing should be maintained at all times. Members who live under the same roof may sit together. Groups of up to four people living under the same roof can sit together with their guests, however advanced notice must be given to the synagogue so that chairs can be placed with appropriate social distancing. The distance from the Aliyah table to member seating will be 12 feet.
7. Those honored with Aliyot should remain masked and are expected to recite, rather than sing.
8. The Synagogue will be responsible for:
 - a. The HVAC units will be in good working order with clean filters and able to provide adequate ventilation to the facility.
 - b. Plexiglass barriers will be installed in front of both the Rabbi's and the Cantor's podium.
 - c. Paper Siddurim will be provided for all attendees. Those attending via streaming will be able to download their Siddur prior to services. Attendees are encouraged to reuse their books at future services.
 - d. Hand sanitizing stations will be readily available.
 - e. Revisit these steps on a monthly basis with recommendations from the Task Force.

Friday evening services can still be accessed using the Live Stream link found on our JCMI website – instructions are available upon request but are also found in the Wednesday email.
