

Saul I. Stern Cultural Series

Saul I. Stern was a prominent business man, civic leader, politician, and a great supporter of the State of Israel. He and his wife Marcia, of blessed memory, spent their winters on Marco Island and became important supporters of the Jewish Congregation of Marco Island and the Jewish Federation of Collier County.

In 2000 Saul joined with Sue and Dr. Harold Baum to bring important programs to the JCMI Cultural Series. In 2003, the JCMI Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of Rabbi Howard Greenstein of blessed memory, named the series for Saul Stern. Saul stayed active in bringing important and interesting speakers to Marco Island until his death in 2010.

The mission of the Saul I. Stern Cultural Series is to provide a wide range of cultural programs to further understanding within our community.
