Yalkut Mordechai: Notes from Rabbi Gross

Thinking About [Our] Business

I just heard an NPR discussion about how the high price of diesel fuel (in excess of $8 a gallon) is going to be creating higher prices for Christmas shopping. That broached in my mind two randomly unassociated thoughts.

One is the need for proactive thinking, regardless of what you do. I've always administered synagogue life with eyes down the road, like driving on the freeway, constantly looking three months ahead. But the retail world deals with much larger cycles, and much more extensive lead-time, as merchandisers planning on big sales in December are forced to absorb in September-October the higher shipping costs of commodities they had ordered in July from catalogues printed in March by wholesalers who evaluated in January what customers had created a demand for the previous November.

That's an archetype for each of us to consider, whatever we do, pursuing Success By Thinking Ahead.

The other consideration I thought about, is one of inter-dependence. The price of fuel effects growing the coffee in Sumatra; raising the sugar, here in Florida; producing milk in California; harvesting the trees in Oregon; pulping the wood for paper cups in Wisconsin; and transporting all those diverse components from all over the world to the local Starbucks. As such, there's a reason the cup of coffee that used to cost a dime at the diner counter is now five bucks.

Now put the question of fuel aside, to be mindful of how very many people, all over the country (or even the world) played a part in meeting our need. And we, ourselves, are the other side of that same coin, when you consider the number of folks to whom we have furnished a livelihood by the things we buy and the services we employ and the food we eat. It is all a vast social contract— civilization, at its most elemental level— in which each of us is, and all of us are, a part of a great mobile enterprise of mutual support.

Back in the early 1980s, when it was fashionable for socially aware people to wax inflammatory about “exploitation” of poor workers in developing countries, American Jewish World Services founder and director Dr. Lawrence Simon pointed out the detail the critics were missing: “those are their coffee beans and cacao pods and ground-nuts.” Raising those commodities brings agency and wealth to people in the equatorial world, creating a reciprocal relationship that enriches both their lives and our own. “I do my part,” Larry Simon concluded, “by taking my coffee with two sugars.”

Rosh haShanah marked הרת עולם, the kick-off of a process that is now well underway. May we all, looking ahead into the New Year just begun, keep our eyes always on the far horizons towards which we proceed in eager anticipate, in a journey of interdependence made all the richer for having shared it together.

I am available to members in the course of my weekend visits on-Island for personal meetings, counseling, or hospital visits— as well as accessible any time by telephone 954-798-6037 or e-mail RabbiMarkGross@gmail.com.

Sweet and Poignant and Celebratory, All At Once

Our first-Friday “Celebration Shabbat” on October 02 will be a celebration, indeed, as we roll together

- the sweetness of the last day of the harvest Feast of Booths,
- the poignancy of “Yizkor,”
- and a joyous Simchat Torah celebration

as a richly diverse multi-faceted conclusion of the fifty-two day Jewish New Year season, and as we embark together in earnest into the New Year 5787 so recently begun.

Meet Our President: Keith D. Alter

My journey with the Board began during the height of Covid in 2021, when I first stepped in as a committee member for Membership and Marketing. I later joined the Board as a Director, focusing on our membership revamp and the creation of new marketing materials. Originally from the New England area, adapting to the "slower pace" down here took some time, but it has truly become home.

Professionally, my background is rooted in healthcare recruitment and sales. I have been running a healthcare agency since the early 1980s, specializing in nursing and allied health placement. In a "past life," I was also deeply involved in the theater, performing on stage for over eight years—an passion I hope to return to one day in my future retirement!

After many years away from regular synagogue life, returning has been an incredibly rewarding experience. The warmth of our congregational family made my wife, Toniann, and me feel instantly welcome—not to mention it quickly led to me being recruited to help out in several different areas! I eventually stepped into the role of First Vice President, working closely with the board to revamp our finances, drive our marketing efforts, and deepen our integration with the local community.

My first six months as your President have been an absolute whirlwind and a deeply fulfilling experience. I am incredibly proud to serve in this position and to collaborate with such a dedicated, wonderful group of people. With the High Holidays behind us—my first major milestone as President—I am excited for what lies ahead.

Please feel free to reach out to me directly if you have any questions, ideas, or if you simply need a helping hand.

NOTES FROM OUR CANTORIAL SOLOIST

This new year of 5787, we ended September and began October with the festival of Sukkot, our harvest celebration. While this harvest is referring to our crops, JCMI likewise has an amazing harvest. And that is the extraordinary, small-but-mighty group of actively involved congregants. We're barely past the first of our new year, and, yet things are really hopping at JCMI – particularly thanks to an amazingly few people who have been doing so much in preparation for this new year. Truly.

The sukkah and all its accoutrements were so beautifully done (including our children's participation – Sarah and Evan!) and will soon be coming down and put away. Thank you, Keith and Toniann Alter for coordinating (not to mention your hands on). Meanwhile, our string of food crews is buzzing in all different directions. From the Event Food and Drinks committee (headed by Lynn Wilk) to our Bubbie's Bakery team (headed by Beth Weinberg), to the Shabbat Oneg committee (headed by Barbara Holtz), to our Break-the-Fast committee (headed by Adele Oppenheim), to our Pre-Kol Nidre dinner (headed by Audrey Snyder). Amazingly delicious smells wafting throughout the temple! What's more, bingo's back (headed by Sue Baum) and in full swing! Both our concert series (headed by Charlie Blum) and movie series (headed by Toniann Alter) are well underway. We will get to walk in and be entertained to our hearts' delight.

Likewise, I can vouch for the fact that our board members are busy virtually every, single day with the JCMI family needs – and that would be:

Keith Alter (president), Morris Margolis (first vice president), Lynn Wilk (assistant treasurer), Mitch Braun (recording secretary), Stan Alliker (director), Charlie Blum (director), Sue Eisinger (director), Phyllis Rosenblum (director), Audry Snyder (director), and Beth Weinberg (director), plus Sara Wolf (legal liaison).

And that's not mentioning the committees that don't swing into action until later in the year – which we'll get to later in the year, of course.

Last, but very not least, I want to acknowledge a few people who directly bail me out regularly. That would be (in alphabetical order by first name): Frank Weinberg, Keith Alter, Melissa Kalloo, Mitch Braun, and Rabbi Mark Gross.

Thank you beyond words.

And to every member of JCMI, my kipah is off to you for your generous support. Just as we present our harvest at Sukkot, it is my honor and pleasure to present our JCMI harvest.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

With fall and winter approaching, what does this mean to all of us in Southwest Florida?

I grew up in New England, so for me, fall meant crisp mornings, the beginning of the school year, and, having just returned from two months at camp, the loss of my independence!

Now, living in SW Florida, that feeling of summer still lingers, and we are holding our collective breaths watching for hurricanes.

However, one constant that remains is the serenity of the High Holidays and the year-end looking us in the face. Don't lose that good feeling you just got in the Synagogue, no more than a month or so ago.

Harvests have been taken in, and the children are now fully into their fall schedules of school and sports. For some up in the North, the changing colors of fall foliage season are one of the most beautiful sights of the year. However, depending on their perspective, what comes next may either send a shiver down one's spine (winter, cold, snow, and early darkness), or be greeted with excitement (winter sports, holidays, and the coming New Year).

So, whatever you do and wherever you are, enjoy what you have and who you have to share it with!

Please join us for our Annual Hanukkah celebration on December 6th at 5 pm at JCMI. We will be lighting our Menorah, accompanied by songs, games, and of course, potato pancakes!

On New Years Eve, we will be hosting a dinner at La Tavola, one of our local restaurants, followed by a concert by the cover band Bee Gees and Back at the synagogue. More details to come!

We would love for you to come and share this time with our family.

Keith D. Alter, President

Friday evening services can still be accessed using the Live Stream link found on our JCMI website – instructions are available upon request but are also found in the Wednesday email.

JEWISH CONGREGATION OF MARCO ISLAND

991 Winterberry Drive, Marco Island, FL 34145 ~ 239.642.0800

Rabbi Mark Gross ~ Cantorial Soloist Havi Jacobsen ~ President Keith D. Alter

May 4, 2026

Dear Fellow Congregants,

I wanted to reach out on behalf of JCMI's Board and all its members. Our dues structure, including the Above and Beyond Campaign, make up a very small portion of the annual operating costs of JCMI. This past season, we have successfully established and renewed events and fundraisers that are necessary to support and maintain JCMI's remaining annual cash flow and reduce the need to draw from our savings.

The Above and Beyond Campaign for this season was only average. We need to be able to add to our savings in addition to just covering annual operating costs. Your Board is anticipating and planning for several major expenses in the coming years, among which include new roof and HVAC systems. These two items alone could very well deplete our current savings. Due to our aging building these expenditures will increase as other items needing attention will continue to arise.

These large requirements need more avenues for support. Legacy gifting is a great way to support your Synagogue.

Whether you are an active volunteer at the synagogue or a continued benefactor, WE NEED YOUR HELP! What better way to secure your legacy and memory of our beloved Jewish community and home? Our home is not just a place for religious worship but a gathering place for all of us.

As we begin our 44th year as an organized house of Jewish worship, I ask that you consider a Legacy Giving plan to JCMI to ensure JCMI continues to be the center of Jewish life and worship on Marco Island for our current and future families to enjoy. Naming JCMI as a beneficiary in your will, trust, or annuity, as well as many other mechanisms can secure your legacy in support of JCMI. Having this conversation with your financial adviser would be the best way to implement your desires to fund JCMI. Legacy Giving is a great way to support your Synagogue; what great way to secure your legacy and memory for our beloved Jewish community and home!

Please reach out to me at kdalter13@gmail.com or 617.293.6515, should you have any questions or are interested in establishing a Legacy Giving donation.

Thank you for considering giving this gift.

Sincerely,

Keith D. Alter, President, JCMI

Dear Members and Friends of JCMI:

We are grateful for the response to our Above and Beyond Appeal so far. However, we are only halfway to our goal and seek your help

Response To-date

Goal

The $35,000 goal is to cover the cost of repairs of the aging building. Our Synagogue is precious. Please help us meet our needs.

We look forward to your support.

With gratitude.
