Shalom and welcome to the Jewish Congregation of Marco Island, a Reform-inclusive spiritual home to many families of diverse ages and backgrounds. Our first meeting was in 1982, when a classified advertisement in a local newspaper attracted a group of 60 enthusiastic and dedicated people who became the nucleus of what is now the JCMI. Our active volunteers offer and participate in a wide variety of stimulating educational and cultural activities. In addition, we organize and sponsor many social events for the greater Marco Island community.

Our religious activities are led by Rabbi Mark Gross and Cantorial Soloist Hari Jacobsen. President Keith Alter and the Board of Directors welcome your attendance and participation.

We hope that you join us for services every Friday evening at 7:30 PM, followed by an Oneg Shabbat. Also, join our Saturday morning Torah Study at 9:30 from September through April.

Our doors are always open to greet those who wish to worship with us. We are located on Winterberry Drive two blocks east of Collier Boulevard.

May the warmth of our sanctuary beckon to you as a second home.
