Ed Lingeman, Village Superintendent:

Reported that leaf pick up will be starting this week (October 9th) and go until snow falls. Gave update on the new cement pad at the Community Center. He mentioned using the HVAC trailer and how convenient it is.

Ed would also like permission to give a verbal order on a new HVAC machine.

Dan Wickes, Asst. Village Superintendent:

Brought up issues with Well 3, and Ed took over and said this will probably need to be covered by insurance.

Kennedy Kohler, Village Clerk:

Informed everyone that there was an Audit Draft in everyone's packets for their viewing pleasure.

Steve VanHolstyn, Code Enforcement Officer: Was not present, no report.

McKala Roberts, Community Center: Was not present, no report.

Committee Reports:

- Budget: Ed would like a new trailer, next year, for storage of tools to save time and money so as not to run back and forth to the shop to grab things that were forgotten.
- President McKay informed everyone that the DNR Spark Grant that the village applied for was denied, and he plans to bring it up at the next meeting about re-applying.

Budget Committee: The Village budget needs to be increased/amended by $10,000 to cover Deb LeFever & Cindy Shafer's pay.

$5,000 for Cindy

$5,000 for Deb
