

The historic Van Horne House

will be Closed October 11 & 12, 2025

to the 20th annual Journey through the past.

We regret to inform you that the Philip Van Horne house will be closed this year October 11 and 12 for “Journey through the Past”, due to historic restoration and preservation projects currently underway, and delayed by the weather.

We are truly sorry to miss this wonderful event, and look forward to bringing history to life at future events and venues. We’ll be back, better than ever and can’t wait to see you next time!

Please see

Somerset County's
2025 Journey Through the Past Participating Historic Sites

Saturday, October 11, 2025 | 10:00 A.M. - 5:00 P.M.

Sunday, October 12, 2025 | 12:00 P.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Where will you go on your Journey Through the Past?

This year's Journey features 34 unique historic sites throughout Somerset County!

Events are made possible by funds from the Somerset County Cultural and Heritage Commission, a partner of the New Jersey Council on the arts and the New Jersey Historical Commission.

*The Van Horne house will reopen this fall and we are already busy planning our next event, the 2nd Calco - American Cyanamid
Pop Up Museum on November 9th from 2-
4pm. Free event & no exhibitor fees!*

*The Calco - American Cyanamide company has a prominent place in 20th century history and preserved the historic Van Horne house.
Come meet the exhibitors, see their items,
and learn more.*

*If you have a Calco connection, memorabilia, or to be an exhibitor,
contact Cindy at 310-691-9388.*

We look forward to seeing you there!
