WE'LL HELP YOU MAKE IT HAPPEN.

At PhilaU, we understand that a college education calls for a significant investment—a long-term investment in yourself, your career and all that you aspire to be.

We're here to help you with this next important step in your college selection process. We'll work together to create a plan to finance your education at Philadelphia University, making it not only possible, but manageable.

We all know the best investments are the ones that pay off. Philadelphia University was the right choice for thousands of successful graduates who do what they love. Find out how an education at PhilaU can pay off for you, too.

Invest in Your Future

PhilaU is where you will discover yourself. Crystallize ideas. Sharpen your focus. Practice discipline. Shape your future.

PhilaU graduates are designing red carpet formalwear and sets for hit television series. They are engineering robotics to enhance mobility for stroke victims and leading medical missions to remote parts of the globe. They are improving shelters for the homeless, building renewable skyscrapers, and driving the growth of international corporations.

Our alumni are making a difference in virtually every field and discipline. They are living, breathing examples of how a PhilaU education makes a difference, here and now.

YOUR IDEAS

Creative City, Creative Campus

Inspiration abounds around campus, in studios and high-tech labs, where students are discovering themselves and ways they can change the world.

PhilaU is a place that combines the vibe of a great city with the classic ivy-covered walls and tree-lined pathways of a beautiful, 100-acre campus.

Hike in one of the largest urban parks in the country, minutes from our campus. Catch the city skyline from your residence hall, knowing that just 15 minutes away lies a cultural mecca and thriving business community where you'll find many internship possibilities and things to do. (Make sure you check out Philadelphia's art galleries, celebrity-chef restaurants and indie music venues.)

about you

YOUR DREAMS

Entrepreneurial Success

Right here in our community lie future generations of forward thinkers who will inspire positive change and improve society as we know it.

Whether you dream of designing a signature fashion collection, a sports stadium or the next generation of hybrid cars, you've come to the right place. PhilaU is where innovation happens.

YOUR FUTURE

Profession, Career, Edge

Every academic program at PhilaU connects our students directly to professionals in their fields. By the time you graduate, you will know how to problem-solve with ingenuity and how to collaborate with a team. You will have industry connections. And you'll have an impressive résumé that reflects the depth and experience you'll need to compete for your dream job—and nail it.

“Our University focuses like a laser on the professional career aspirations of our students; not only do we prepare them to get a job in the profession of their passion, but we prepare them in a manner that creates a professional career in the midst of a dynamic, even chaotic world.

— STEPHEN SPINELLI, JR., Ph.D., President of PhilaU
