The Power of the Veteran Entrepreneur (Panel Discussion)

Join Roll Call Chicagoland to discuss the Power and Planning of the veteran entrepreneur. Many service members and their family take a hybrid approach to employment both during and after the military. Even after securing traditional roles in their civilian careers, entrepreneurial endeavors can help support the camaraderie and sense of purpose post service.

This event will talk about the planning and process but also the powerful support you have available in the veteran network to start something new and see your passion project turn into a profitable and positive addition to your career plans.

RSVP by Friday, October 29th to ensure your name tag is ready and waiting for you upon arrival:
