

Minister's Vow

I, _____, do recognize that I am not sufficient in myself to think of anything as being from myself, but that my sufficiency is from God. He made me a sufficient minister of the New Covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit.

Therefore, since I have this ministry, I have received mercy and will not lose heart. I have renounced the hidden things of shame. I will not walk in craftiness nor handle the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of truth, I commend myself this day to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

I will pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience and gentleness. I will fight the good fight of faith and lay hold on eternal life. I will guard what God has committed to my trust. I will hold the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience.

I will minister the word, be watchful in all things, endure afflictions and fulfill my ministry by the grace of God. I recognize that without Christ, I can do nothing, but with Him, I can do all things.

The Lord will stand by me so that the message might be preached through me. The Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for His Heavenly Kingdom where I will receive the crown of life. To Him be the glory for ever and ever, Amen.
