

THE MAKING OF BIBLE LEADERS

Title	Reference
The Power to Change the World	Matthew 28:19	All the training in the world will provide only limited success if you do not turn your people loose to do the job. The way to do that is to give them responsibility, authority, and accountability. For some people, responsibility is the easiest to give. But what is difficult for some leaders is allowing their people to keep the responsibility after it's been given. Poor managers want to control every detail of their people's work. When that happens, the potential leaders who work for them become frustrated and don't develop. Rather than desiring more responsibility, they become indifferent or avoid responsibility altogether. Once responsibility and authority have been given to people, they become empowered to make things happen. But we also have to be sure that they are making the right things happen. That's where accountability comes into the picture.
