Cpl. Michael P. Middlebrook Humanitarian Award 2021 Nomination

Back the Blue of Acadiana (“BTB”) would like to recognize the challenges police officers face and say a public thank you for a job well done.

Our Officer of the Year Award has officially been renamed the Cpl. Michael P. Middlebrook Humanitarian Award. As many know, Cpl. Middlebrook had a compassion for the residents living in his precinct. He took the time to get to know them and assisted many, sometimes with his own personal funds. He had a heart of gold and truly enjoyed serving and protecting those in his community.

The Award involves receiving nominations from the community identifying Police Officers in the Parish of Lafayette who have shown any of the following valued:

Courtesy, kindness, understanding, compassion, courage and devotion to duty are key qualities required in police officers in their normal duties. We are looking for well-rounded officers who have exceeded the duty requirements expected of his/her position and has demonstrated a distant pattern of community service coupled with professional achievement. The nomination can be for one or more of these that the officer has shown in a particular act, a series of acts, or demonstrated ongoing professionalism.

Nominees must be active, full-time and paid, sworn law enforcement officers entrusted with full authority. Nominees may be employed by Lafayette Parish Sheriff, Lafayette Police Department, Lafayette City Marshall, Carencro Police Department, Duson Police Department, Youngsville Police Department, Broussard Police Department, Scott Police Department, Louisiana State Troopers, Troop I and University of Louisiana at Lafayette Police.

The Officer of the Year Award will be given at the 4th Annual Back the Blue Family Fun Day on Saturday, October 9, 2021. The deadline to submit your nomination will be Wednesday, September 15, 2021 at 12:00 p.m. (noon).

Please e-mail nomination forms to events@backtheblueacadiana.com.
