Tue – Sat 11–5PM appointments advised

Bas Louter makes drawings, paintings and clothing using spray paint. The repetitive and mechanical nature of his work seems to echo the industrial and mechanized features of a colossal city, a place where memory is erased and movement and failure are in a constant cycle.

At his exhibition at Oolong Gallery Bas will present a new series of canvases that will double as a backdrop for an informal performance by the staff of the gallery.

The title Zuckerzeit (from German: sugar time) was inspired by the third album of the Krautrock band Cluster, relating to Bas' use of vibrant and sugary colors, which offer a place for escape and contemplation.

The opening will be accompanied by an eclectic dj set by @the_charliekittens
