Prayer of Blessing for Evangelists and CCM July 2, 2021
By Apostle Linda Booth

Loving God,

I come to You humbly on behalf of Your beloved children. And even though we are miles apart, I feel Your Spirit holding us together, binding us together, molding us together, uniting us in Your Holy presence.

I praise You God. For this wonderful universe, for Your creative nature that surrounds us, just waiting for us to pay attention to You.

I praise You God for life itself. For the opportunities all around us to receive Your love and to generously share Your love and grace with others.

I praise You God for Your son Jesus Christ. For his life and ministry for his death and resurrection, and for Your promise of everlasting life.

Thank You, Thank You loving God.

Already You are forming a blessing in the minds of Your nine servants—Evangelists who have been called and ordained to bring a special blessing to Your people....Evangelists—who love You and love Your people. As they cry out to You for the right words to bless Your people, grant them the blessed assurance that You are holding them even as they hold Your people in their hearts.

Continue to bless them as they pray, as they willingly and intentionally go deep into the well of Your living waters, may they be cleansed of any feelings of inadequacies, may they be refreshed with new hope and encouraging words for Your people.

Place within them a yearning for Your living water. Make them so thirsty that they reach out for You, knowing that You are near and yearning for them to be so close to You and to each other that they become the living vessels of Your blessing.

In those moments of frustration as they struggle to become one voice of blessing, help each to put aside their own individual desires so that the blessing You have for Your beloved children might spring forth even as living water to enrich the divine call and purpose that You have for the CCM sacred community.

Make them aware that in this moment and the moments to come that You are calling them to humbly walk together, not as individual Evangelists of blessing but as a mighty, unified movement of Your Spirit's blessings to mold, inspire, to empower a mighty movement of CCM sisters and brothers, called to embody the concerns and passion of Jesus Christ in a hurting world.

God, I know my words are inadequate to express the blessing that You have for these Your beloved servants. Please God, open them to feel, and hear, be aware of the blessing You have for them in this moment and every moment on this journey to bring Your sacred blessing to Your beloved children of CCM.

And God, just as You nourish and fill Your servants with Your Holy Spirit, help my sisters and brothers in the CCM community to also be thirsty for Your presence, for Your word. Remind them daily to seek You out. In the business of life, to be quiet and watch for You, to be quiet and listen to You.

Help each to be open for the daily surprises that You have in store for them on this journey of blessing. May each surprise and new insight prepare them to hear the words You are preparing in the minds, hearts, and souls of Your servant Evangelists.

May they be willing and open to love more deeply, to give more freely, to go courageously where You send them In Your name, called to be a light in the darkness, called to do something valuable for Your precious people.

And God says, be alert, be open, be present. I'm doing something brand-new in Your midst. Don't You see it. Pay attention on this journey of blessing for I am with You. I love You and

I need You to be my instruments of peace, of love, of healing in a hurting world.

Oh God, may Your blessing be realized now and on this journey of hope, discover, and new beginnings.

In the name of Jesus Christ, our savior and friend, Amen.

Lord, we come to You blessing this day and the good things that have happened, and the many things that we have felt, and heard, and have seen You do.

Lord, we repent of those things that will not be pleasing, or would not be Christian.

We just ask Lord for Your forgiveness that we close this day, completely feeling at ease and at peace with You, and that as we go into the night we go with peace and rest, and quietness and solitude...that we awake refreshed.

We just ask these favors and blessings in Your Holy Name and know that You are always, and forever with us and never, ever, leave us alone. We thank You and praise You in Jesus Name.

AMEN

Bless this day, the quiet sounds of morning...the waking of creation.

Bless the silence, Nurturer of solitude; feeding thirsty spirits, filling hearts for another day.

We breathe deeply the quiet, the early morning sounds, the softness of the sun.

We breathe deeply the beauty, the songs of birds, the dew upon the grass.

We breathe deeply the peace, cool wind upon skin, gentleness in every step.

Guide us gently into the day. May we be blessings to all we meet. Amen

Celebration 2022, 7-18-2022 Monday Afternoon Evangelist Blessing
By Arlene Winslow
Transcribed by: Arlene Winslow

To my cherished and beloved children who are full of years, silver-haired, bald, or tinted, who no longer are fleet of step and/or are confined or constrained by physical limitations: Be assured of my continued love and presence. Your Heavenly Father is aware of your years of leadership, your concern and your caring for children and grandchildren, for the state of the world and the advancement of God's Kingdom on earth. Many have been or are now caregivers for spouses, parents and relatives. God sees and knows your years of service and sacrifice as faithful members, Sunday school teachers, priesthood, pastors and other church-member roles.

Your devoted use of time and talents is commended as you call to remembrance with deep thankfulness the faces and voices of all the lives you have embraced and given ministry to over the years. Your expressions of caring, grace and mercy are honored and praiseworthy. Continue to reach out as health, resources and guidance permits. Do not hesitate to share knowledge, wisdom and testimonies which you have gained throughout your faith walk in all contexts with youth and age. You have a rich heritage and treasury of experiences which will encourage others to action and response.

Accept with grace and self-compassion the inevitability of failing health and limited capacity for daily tasks such as driving, decision making, and household maintenance. Failing body systems, ageing bones and mental acuity may afflict and limit the ability to participate as fully and completely as in the past. Enjoy the lessening of responsibilities. Invite, allow and encourage the younger generations to take places of greater responsibility and participation.

Do not grieve over or regret your past. Know that your Heavenly Father forgives and no longer remembers the sins of both omission and commission. You are totally and fully accepted just as you are. Love and accept yourself as the beautiful soul, body and spirit who is created in the very image and likeness of the Creator. Be assured of the love, complete acceptance and the comforting arms of your Heavenly Father are present now and always.

Do not fear the approaching death of the physical body. Rest in the sure knowledge that each of you has a special place, even a room in God's house which is now being prepared by Jesus himself. You are God's beloved. You are a much beloved child of God, now, always and forever.

CELEBRATION 2022 AM PRAYER BLESSING

by Evangelist BEV MOOR

I offer a Lord's prayer for us:

O My people, the time has now come that I offer you My Spirit to do mighty works, to do works that you never thought of because of My power that I have given you, through the Holy Ghost, to do all things in My Name. I pray to my Father, and yours, that He would open His arms in the blessings of My heaven to be showered down upon us, and upon you, that we might serve the Creator in ways we have never heard or dreamt. I will be with you through My Spirit. Go now, and do the mighty works you have been called to do.

God bless you. In My Name I pray, Jesus.

AMEN

Beloved Community,

The Spirit of the Almighty, the God of all creation calls unto all in this day and time to experience the enriching love He wishes to share with you. the works and dedication of My people go forward slowly. there are many who have sensed My love and desires but have not responded in the ways of My Son.

I have called you to be possessors of My love, by giving yourself for the sake of others. From the beginning of My creation, I am aware of all who are precious unto me.

I desire to share My sustaining and abiding qualities of total wholeness with all of My creation.

Enrich yourselves in My service, by being of service to others.

Bring about the task I have called you to in this day and time.

My Son, walks with you, My Spirit guides you and I God, will sustain you.

Be not overly concerned about the task of building the kingdom but be concerned with the quality of love you possess, in and for the ministry of My Son

Jesus. Amen!

O God the giver of all life, we lift our voices and open our hearts in praise and Thanksgiving.

Our hopes and our dreams would be to honor in deepest humility the giving of your Son,

Jesus to every man, every woman, and every child.

We come seeking to affirm our discipleship and by our own actions and deeds, we will embrace the precious moments of life for all persons.

We claim the promise of your Son in offering ourselves to respond fully and without reservation in the restoration ministry of your healing and redeeming love for all creation.

O’ God,

May your tears be our tears,

may your hopes be our hopes,

may your love be our love,

may your peace be our peace,

fill us now O’ God with the outpouring of your Spirit upon us and within us.

CCM salvation and freedom is your message, a message of hope and love.

Free the oppressed, set the prisoners free, feed the hungry and offer the water of life, that all will never be thirsty again.

Extend the invitation of love and hope. Offer your prayers unto me for a world that is bruised and broken-hearted needing to know of my love and care. Lay down your life even as my Son, for the sake of all you encounter and then you will experience the building of my kingdom even Zion the beautiful within you and around you.

Pray always to see the path I am calling you to be on.

CCM claim the promises of my kingdom and you will be blest in the knowledge of all things of my kingdom.

Expand the horizons of the opportunities that I desire to give to you, and you will experience my divine encounters within you and around you. I am calling you, hear my voice and proclaim my love for all.

Walk the path and ministry of my, Son and you will truly know what it means, to feed my sheep. feed my lambs, feed my world. CCM, you are making a difference and my love, and my grace will attend you for what is and for what is yet to be. Amen

by Evangelist Gary Elrod

This prayer out, the thoughts of this prayer, John 3: 16 says, for God so loved the world that He gave His Son that whosoever should believe it shall not perish but have everlasting life.

We need to believe, to know that there is that kind of love that gives the world for us to share in is the message that is our hope and our dream. It is the simplicity of whom we have been called to be. I know the dynamics of the mystical parts of the Kingdom, and we need to continue to learn those. But we so much need to be in relationship with one another. We need to expand the possibilities of Gods affirming presence, of His amazing grace that is upon us. These words are given to CCM as a prayer of blessing and the direction that God continues to call us to go. And remember the words as you read the words in a blessing that you know they always expand, they always have opportunity. What holds true for one day and may expand to the next day and you begin to see further insights. So, I humbly present what I know and understand by the perceptivity of the spirit about God loving the world and His call to creation. And that would be inclusive of all those that have joined with us from First People, from the restoration, whoever it may be; from friends, from family, for those that identity we may not even know. So, may the in words in the simplicity of the love of Christ, speak to you this morning as I share them with you Oh God, the giver of all life. We lift our voices and open our hearts in praise and thanksgiving. Our hopes and our dreams would be to honor in deepest humility, the giving of

Your Son Jesus to every man, to every woman, and to every child. We come seeking to affirm our discipleship and by our own actions and deeds, we will embrace the precious moments of life for all persons. We claim the promise of Your Son and offering ourselves to respond fully and without reservation, in the restoration ministry of Your healing and redeeming love for all of creation. Oh God, may Your tears be our tears, may Your hope be our hope, may Your love be our love, may Your peace be our peace. Fill us now, oh God with the outpouring of Your spirit upon us and within us.

CCM salvation and freedom is Your message. A message of hope and love. Free the oppressed. Set the prisoners free, feed the hungry and offer the water of life that all will never be thirsty again. Extend the invitation of love and hope. Offer Your prayers unto Me for a world that is bruised and broken-hearted needing to know of My love and care. Lay down Your life even as My Son, for the sake of all you encounter, and then you will experience the building of My Kingdom -- even Zion, the beautiful within you and around. Pray always to see the path I am calling you to be on. CCM claim the promises of My Kingdom and you will be blessed in the knowledge of all things of My kingdom. Expand the horizons of the many opportunities that I desire and give to you, and you will experience by divine encounters within you and around you.

I am calling you. Hear My voice. Proclaim My love for all. Walk the path and ministry of My Son and you will truly know what it means to feed My sheep, to feed My lambs, to feed My world.

CCM you are making a difference and My love, and My grace will attend you for what it is and for what is yet to be. Amen.

I would like to just as my start to expand it up on that. Last night as I was laying there, I thought about those that have joined with us in the joy of hope and peace, love, and comfort for God's Kingdom to be established. I appreciated hearing Ellison's comments on what she had shared and to bring the dynamics of the insights of that. I've been inquisitive about Native American ministries and from time to time I have joined with First People just to be in awe as they pass the stick in respect for others to speak and to talk. What a wonderful moment. The spirit is alive in First People. The spirit is alive in their ministry and the respect for the world in which they occupy, that domain, they know that it belongs to God in us. We are not called to correct the world, we are called to give to the world, Jesus, who does the corrections and brings and uplifts people. Richard Rupe, I appreciated Your insights in the Book of Mormon, some of My first experiences in the church and one that I hold true to My heart even now, it is about the four sons of Mosiah and how they were cantankerous, and they were rebellious and how they really had a lot of power to destroy people. But something happened to them. They had a transformation experience. What really caught My heart, and it burns in My heart even now at this moment, that is internal, and they made a proclamation. They said they could not stand that one soul should perish, not even their enemies. This is who we are friends. This is who we are.

We are friends of God. We are friends of the world. Go and expand those opportunities to all people and let God do His unique loving work for all of its creation. Without you, it may not be possible. That is what is so important, to see to those that are seeking. I just wanted to share that with you and thank you all for Your ministry, for being here and attending.

I look forward to tonight as we are embarking on the evangelist blessing that will be given by our brother Bob Slasor, and those insights and that love that will be there. I pray as God's grace continues to be on Bob, that His tongue, His heart, may be open in ways that are profound, but in ways that are so simple; that this is what God is calling us to be. I have had that experience with Bob. Bob in the humility of what He represents to who Jesus is, is one beggar telling another beggar where to get food. I am thankful for that passion and that love burns in His heart. I am excited about tonight for our service, for our time together. May all be blessed this day as we continue forward. Amen.

Good morning Holy Father,

Thank you for a night of restful sleep and renewal of our body and mind.

Thank you for awakening us to a beautiful new day. Thank you for the brightness of the sun that fills our eyes and warms our souls so that we behold the beauty of your creation.

Thank you for your mercies that are new every morning. Thank you that all the stains of yesterday are gone, washed clean and you fill us with the brightness of hope that comes from knowing the precious love of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and knowing you, our Heavenly Father, our Creator, our God, our King, our Sustainer and Friend.

O Father, it is humbling that you call us friend. ---How awesome! ---How wonderful! ---

Help us, truly, Lord, to know how to be your friend.

Help us to learn to do as Jesus did as He only said the things you told him to say and did the things you told him to do.

Let us not mar this day with even one thought that is unworthy of Your Holy Calling You have placed on each life.

O how we love you, Father. How we treasure that sweet and abiding love that You pour out on us through the power of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Help us to host Your Spirit well as we gather in your name to learn, to pray, and to grow more and more in the likeness of Your Son.

We speak forth a special blessing on all those brothers and sisters who work behind the scenes to make this day's activities run smoothly. We lift up those who will teach us and minister to us today. Give them strength, energy, and wisdom.

Give us an awakened heart and a listening ear, so that we are ready to learn all that you have for us today.

We love You; we praise You and we rejoice together in the mighty name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen

Before I pray, I want to share something with You from Ephesians verse 20. Now I am going to read what verse twenty says in the New Living Translation, but I am also going to read a little declaration that was given to me not too long ago. I have passed it out to several people that liked it, so I want to share that with You before I pray. Now all glory to God who is able through His mighty power at work within us to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think. You know, sometimes I think we do not really understand how much God can do and how much he wants to give us. But this little declaration says I declare Ephesians 3:20 over my life.

God will do exceedingly abundantly above all that I ask or think. Because I honor Him, His blessing will chase me down and overtake me. I will be in the right place at the right time. People will go out of their way to be good to me. I am surrounded by God's favor. This is my declaration. I like that declaration. When I first heard it and I started to read it, I thought I think this sounds like too much self-interest maybe, but as I have listened this week to Bob and to others, God has all kinds of interest in us. He has that interest, and he wants to give us that favor. I am thankful for that favor. I can tell You there have been a few times that I wish I had written them down because at this very moment they do not come to my mind. But I prayed for favor, and I got favor. I know I prayed for favor, and it came, it really came. I know that You can do that too and You probably do it without even realizing it. We just sang about His goodness is running after me. We sang that. That is a prayer, and that is a declaration is not it. So now I will have the prayer for this morning

Our dear Loving Heavenly Father we say good morning to You. It is a good morning, and it is a good day because You are present with us, and we are present with You. Thank You for the night of restful sleep that renews our body and our mind.

Thank You for awakening us to a beautiful new day Lord thank You for my sister just called me and she's lived so long and been such a joy to my life thank You for her and bless her this day

We thank You for awakening us to a beautiful new day Lord. Thank You, Father, that the sun is shining bright and that it shines in our hearts, and it shines in our in our lives and our very soul. It warms us and gives us the beauty that we can see Your creation. Thank You, Father, that Your mercies are new every morning. Thank You that the stains of yesterday are gone. They are washed away. They are clean. We come to You as clean vessels this morning. We pray that You fill us with brightness of hope. Fill us Father, with that precious Holy Spirit that just loves You and loves each other. Thank You for this precious Savior who died on the cross for us in order to give us this home with You. Thank You that You call us friend Lord and help us to be that friend to You. Help us to learn as Jesus did, to say only the things that You told Jesus to say and do the things that You told Him to do. Just like yesterday. Father, we heard that we cannot just be, we have to do. Lord, help us to do what You desire us do, to say what You tell us to say, to do what

You lead us to do. Lord, I do pray, that as we move through this day, that everything we think or hope or say or do will be worthy of the call that You placed on our lives. We love You, Father. We treasure that sweet and abiding love that You pour out on us through the power of Your Holy Spirit that lives, moves, and breathes inside of us. Let us host it well Father. Let us grow more and more in the likeness of Your son. Father, as we gather together, we think of all those people who have worked all year long to make this occasion happen. Bless them I pray and bless those that still work behind the scenes to make this activity that we entered too each day, runs smoothly.

We lift up today those who will teach us, those who will minister to us, in one way or another.

Help us to accept it. We pray that You give them strength, energy, wisdom, and the very words that You want us to hear. Lord, give us an awakened heart and a listening ear so that we can be ready to learn all that You have for us today.

Lord, help us not to forget. Help us to be ready to hear it all over again and in times to come when we need it for that is how wonderful Your Holy Spirit is to bring to our remembrance those things that we have need of. We love You, Lord. We praise You we rejoice together. In the mighty name of Jesus our Savior, our Lord, Amen

Celebration 2022, 7-19-2022 Evangelist Blessing of CCM Young Adults

By Evangelist Winnie Tepper

Transcribed by: Winne Tepper

Our Holy Father, we come to You in the mighty name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. It is Your good pleasure to speak blessing over all Your children. And now You speak, Father, especially to young adults:

My dear ones, strong and mighty. your life, the very fact that you were born and you exist, is a gift, a precious gift, not to be taken lightly but to be treasured. Nothing about your life has been an accident. You have been called and ordained unto life. You are to take hold of this life with great joy in the fact that you have been chosen to live now, in this time and age. Choose you well whom you will serve.

Take hold of My word and learn of My promises. These promises are not just for those who have gone before. My promises are fresh and new, and they are to be made manifest in vibrant souls like you, My children. You have great need of My word, my promises and My presence because you are living in treacherous times. You are also living in awesome, wondrous times. You are living in the days when I will pour out My spirit on all flesh.

You will have great need of My spirit just to keep from being overcome by both the good and the bad that you see around you. Plant your feet firmly in who I am in you and who you are in Me. Stand firm in the assurance that I will never leave you nor forsake you.

The time of preparation is at hand. Look up, for the return of My Son is nearer than you think. Be not fearful but rejoice with gladness and great anticipation. Be not confused in thinking that this Means that your life is over. On the contrary, it brings greater and clearer purpose, increased joy, enhanced understanding, and happiness beyond your wildest imagination.

Be quick to let go of offence. Forgive quickly and completely. Your forgiveness depends on how well you forgive others.

Hold fast to the faith you have been given for I will see you through these confusing and uncertain times. There will be cleansing and, cleansing must come, in order for My spirit to sweep the earth.

Hold fast to the rod of iron and you will be privileged to see, hear, and behold what others have only dreamed of and prayed to see.

You are a blessed people. You are strong and endowed with great capability. Give yourselves unreservedly to the influence of My Son, and you will be filled with the power to do mighty things.

Let no thought of doubt or timidity come into your mind, and with the Power of Jesus Christ living in you, you will do even greater things than you can now imagine.

Seek Me with all your heart and I will come to you. You will have Holy Spirit as your greatest companion, teaching you, leading you, guiding you in every area of your life. Be faithful and of good courage and you will accomplish mighty deeds for the Lord.

My dear ones, if you will make My Son, Jesus Christ, the Lord of your life, many will come to know Me because they know you and My joy will be complete in you.

In the name of My Son, I bless you.

Amen

| Celebration 2022 7-17-2022 Sunday Night Prayer of Blessing by Evangelist Steve Calloway Transcribed by: Steve Calloway |

Dear God, At the close of this evening we thank you for the blessings of this day, spent in fellowship with You and others of Your beloved children. We PRAISE Your Holy

Name for the uncountable number of Your gifts that have brought us to this place. We praise you for the talents and giftedness within our virtual congregation tonight including. Especially, we praise you for the Passion to be at one with You, in the hearts of this, our fellowship. Gratefully, we acknowledge Your Loving COMPASSION as the source of all that is good even our own uniquely created selves. We acknowledge Your Love as the source of that Eternal force, felt by humankind, to always feel incomplete until we rest in, and are at one with you.

We have gathered in one heart and one mind this week to be one with you and each other just as Jesus prayed. Lord Jesus, we come tonight pronouncing the renewal of Your Blessing, that Blessing of Oneness upon this fellowship. Bless us with a Christ like love for each other, that we may be truly one, after a measure of the oneness of you and the Father. We pray for the Divine capacity to see through each other's eyes. Grant that this will provide a more Eternal perspective of the preciousness of each person, and the different yet essential gifts that each individual brings to Your Zionc Enterprise. Help us to grow in our understanding that the unique gifts and insights of each life brings a particular truth needed by the body, even when at first, it may appear different from other insights of other truths, seen from other perspectives. Grant us Your eyes to see, and Your ears to hear each other in love and openness.

As a fellowship of Your believers, teach us to bring daily blessing upon our young families both within this circle as well as outside into all of our families' circles. Dear Lord we speak blessing upon our young families tonight. Bless those who will be represented here this week and bless our extended young families of our gathered parents, grandparents, relatives, and friends. Grant the gift that each family member may be endowed with the blessing of seeing you in each other. In both good and difficult times, grant that parents may have eyes to see Your Infinite Love in their children. Bless the children that they may see the revelation of how much you cherish them, reflected in the lives of their parents, loved ones, and friends.

In this challenging era, bless our young families, and the families whose lives we touch, with the capacity to see each other and the world through the eyes of Your Infinite Love. Help them grease the gears of the complicated machinery of family living, with limitless expressions of Your patience. Dear Lord, bestow upon them a more Infinite patience in service to each other and in the countless challenges they will face. Bless and grow their capacity to see through Your eyes, enabled by the grace filled knowledge that Your Son has already paid the price and secured the Eternal victory for us all. Help each to function in the hope found in knowing Jesus, remembering that He taught us that with God all things are possible.

Cover us tonight, and every night with Your peace, Your rest, and with sweet dreams of kingdom building insights. Raise us up in the morning and every morning with renewed strength and capacity to hear and do Your will. Tune our hearts and minds, to be guided in tomorrow's opportunities to reveal Your Infinite Care through acts of loving service. In our first morning prayers, direct our thoughts into ways in which we can be Your hands and feet, bringing Your passionate love to people you put in our paths.

Dear God we thank You for the blessings that You have provided today. We praise You for the amazing blessings of healing, and renewal both in spirit and in hope. We are grateful for the blessings that have come through the first half of this week. We have already received blessings in new and renewed personal connections with others that have nurtured us. These precious moments of fellowship will continue to bless us as these friendships grow into deeper and even more wonderful relationships.

Lord, tonight we praise You because of Your Holiness and Righteousness. We thank You that we can know You, and bask in the knowledge that You know each of us, individually by name. In the closing moments of this evening, we pray that You wrap us, in a blanket of rest that will nurture and increase our desire to walk closer and closer with You. Help us to successfully walk more and more minutes of each day, at Your side, with You as our companion and as our guide. Help us to thirst for Your righteousness. Increase our thirst for You. Make our tongues a desert of thirsting for Your Living water until we are renewed by You. Make us thirst for Your will until our oneness with You quenches that longing and we are resting in Your Will and drinking in Your love.

Lord, in places where we stumbled today, thank You for the reminder that You are not finished with us yet, and that You, O Lord, have already secured the final victory. It is simply ours to accept and to walk along beside You. Help us surrender all to You, releasing our earthly treasures and egos. Help us release anything that sits on the thrones of our hearts, in place of You. Help us keep only You, there in Your rightful place at the center of our hearts and devotion.

Thank You for moments of revelation that guide us, as our instructors have so beautifully described today. We praise You for that leading and instruction in our walk.

However in times of uncertainty, help us have faith to step into the unknown, assured that You are there to provide the next stepping stone for our journey. Assure us that these faith steps enable us to ascend to that next level closer to, and with You.

Thank You for the promises of scripture that reveal Your purposes to bless us in our walk of faith. We praise You for the Divine provision enabling us to grow from our beginning desires to serve You to a full and mature faith. We rejoice in Your power to transform our faith efforts into knowledge of You, allowing us to be guided by Your Holy Spirit.

Now Dear God, we ask that You go with us to our rest, secure in the knowledge of Your peace and of Your love. Bless our rest with dreams and insights of direction in Your service. Tomorrow, may we be even more expectant and receptive of Your miraculous presence than we were today.

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ we pray, Amen

| Celebration 2022 Monday Morning, 7-18-22 Prayer by Evangelist Lorenzo Hill Transcribed by: DeeDee Beebe |

Most gracious and loving Heavenly Father, as I come on behalf of my brothers and sisters today, we are headed on a journey, one which we have not taken before. We are to walk on a pathway that we are unfamiliar with.

There will be things that you want us to understand and know that we have been given insights to in the past, yet we don't understand. Father, I ask, that you give us ears to hear and give us eyes to see. Release those scales from our eyes and our ears that we might understand the truth. You have told us in scriptures that your son Jesus is the truth. Father, we have in many ways ignored the things that he has tried to teach us. Father, release us from the bondage of the sins of the past, that we might fully represent you here on this earth, this day.

Let us be the small vision of heaven that will allow others to know of the reality of Your presence and allow them to respond to the work of the Holy Spirit and so if they may repent, join us in the effort to be true disciples. Father, the meaning of that word disciple, needs to be embedded within our hearts, within our minds. Help us, Father God, allow us to see the true meaning. To hear your voice as you teach us, as you create in us, Father, a new heart, and a new mind.

Father, we stand before you, admitting that we have not made the commitment fully that we should make. We still want to hold on to the pleasures of this life. We still want to hold on to those thoughts and those desires within us, Father, that speak of the things on this earth. Father,

I ask that you will help us to understand how to be set free from those things so that You may work that marvelous work and wonder in our hearts, so that we might be converted into the image of Jesus Christ. You have called us,

Father God, to walk in the semblance of your pure love so that others, Father God, might have the desire to have that same power and strength in their lives.

We have asked for the endowment to be bestowed upon us, and we don't understand the truth of what that entails. Father, open our hearts and our minds to understanding -- To know that the basis of the endowment, is the pure love that we have for you and for our brothers and sisters. Father, it is indeed a challenge for us to relinquish all those things that we have learned in the past and to be willing, Father God, to let go of those, so that you might teach us anew.

This week, Father God, we have the opportunity to move forward in the call of true discipleship. Allow us Father God, to enter into your presence this week, that we might see and know and hear what the truth really is. I ask your power to be shown forth in those who will be working this week to let that Holy Spirit work through them to bring to pass the truth, the truth of understanding, the truth of our commitment and the truth of our love for you and our love for each other.

Father God, I thank you for the gift of eternal life. I thank you, Father God, that you want to hold us in your arms. And, that all you want, Father God, is for us to be who we were created to be. Help us, Father God, teach us not hide from you but be open with you. Teach us, Father God, to understand those hidden pathways that have been hidden within us, Father God, that we don't even know or understand, Father, but you do. Forgive us for making the wrong commitments or following the wrong pathways. Empower us to choose the right things to do that You might be honored and glorified in the time that we have here on this earth.

Father, you have given us the instructions on how to do this. Yet, Father God, we have been misled in so many ways. Help us, Father God, to shed those misunderstandings and allow the truth of your love to come and be embedded in our hearts. Teach us to love like you love, empower us to love the same as you love, the same way that Jesus loved when he allowed himself to be crucified. Allow us, Father God, to make the commitment to let go of those sinful lusts that so much cause us, Father God, to shy away from you and the work and with all you do.

I thank you that you love us with love so deep, so profound. I thank you that Jesus loves us with that same love and the Holy Spirit that you have placed within us, has that same level of love and commitment to bring us, Father God, into your presence. That we, Father God, might bask in the wondrous nature of your love and be healed. Heal our hearts and our minds. Take the sickness of sin from us Father God. Open our hearts and minds to understand what we need to do to release you, to bring to pass, true holiness and righteousness in our pathways and in our dealings with one another.

I thank you, Father God, that you have chosen us even before we were created. That you, Father God, through your grace, will provide the abundance of love, the abundance of spiritual nurture that is needed for us to be entrusted with the work, the same work your angels do, that we might glorify your holy name.

Father, I call upon you to release your servants at this time. So that we, Father God, might glorify you in all things and in all ways. Watch over us. Help us to understand that when we let go of those things that have anchored us to the things on this earth, that we will be released to allow heaven to be spread forth here on this earth.

We, Father God, have heard the call to build your Kingdom. That Kingdom can only be based on love and the sacrifice Christ Jesus has shown forth for each of us. Help us, Father God, that we might duplicate the level commitment that He has shown fourth that we need to have for the salvation of our brothers and sisters who are still bound by the anchor of sin in their lives.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, in Jesus Holy Name I pray, Amen

| Celebration 2022, 7-21-2022 Thursday Afternoon Blessing by Evangelist Lorenzo Hill Transcribed by: Deedee Beebe |

These are the words the Lord has asked me to share with you today.

In the name of our Savior Lord Jesus Christ, I call you to a new relationship with me. You are my chosen ones. I chose you from the beginning of time. I called you into existence. I embedded within you many skills and capabilities. I gave you gifts of the spirit. I gave unto you the ability to make the choice to follow me or the follow the wiles of the evil one. I want you to live with me in the home of my father. I want you to walk upon the earth as a representative of the love that I have for you, and I have for each member of my creation. I call you, my children, to heed the call, to listen, to allow me to work that wonderous work of wonderous perfection in you. I know that many of you have had and faced many trials upon this earth and there were times that you questioned where is God. I have always been with you and I will always be with you.

I have taken on your sin. I have taken on the responsibility of bringing you into the role of perfection. I have told you time and time again that I want you to be perfect and you can be in me. Your perfection lies within me and the Holy Spirit that I place within you. I have given you all the tools necessary. You have misunderstood because of the many teachings you have heard. I want you to come back to the pureness of my gospel. You see, I do not desire to cause you harm.

I do not desire to see you hurt or suffer in any manner. I want you to find the comfort of being with me. I want to hold you in my arms as have I caused you to do with little children.

I want to caress you and keep you from the wiles of the evil. Sometimes I will allow him to do things that I was uncomfortable with. I had to do that to honor his choice, to honor his ability to choose or reject. I had to do this because there is so many who do not understand without pain, without suffering that the choice I provide for you is one to provide you with eternal comfort.

You see, life with me here in the heavenly graces, in the heavenly places, will be wonderful. But many of you have to go through the probationary period that you have on this earth. I have told you; you will have to be tested. You will have to understand the true meaning of what my love is. You have to understand the suffering and heartbreak and misery that sin brings in the lives of people. I have created a world of wonder for you to live in, but many of you ignore it. You do not look to the fact that I provide water, simply water, the water that I placed in your body. Your body is made-up of a good deal of water. Your body needs water to survive.

Your body needs food to survive. I set up a system to where you cannot live without something else dying, whether it be plant or animal. You have to receive the nutrients that your body needs because these things died for you, because they love you. and are willing to give their very lives.

You see, that is why I gave up my life for you. I am calling you to let heaven be expressed in your life as it is here. I am calling you to allow me to be your guide and trust me enough to accept the promises that I have given you. Some of those promises can only be answered on this side of the veil. Some of you have been allowed to see beyond the veil. I desire that you all be able to do so. I desire that you all might know of the reality of my presence, the reality of the father, the reality of the comforter. You see all the physical things around you. You believe in those, you trust those, you put your hope in those. I want you to turn that around put your trust in me. Put your hope in me. Put your confidence that the words I tell you are true. I have told you look at the elements around you. You are made-up of those elements. You know the power of those elements. You have seen them used to kill, to destroy your brothers and sisters. I want you to use them to bring life, to bring hope, to bring peace in this life.

I want you to know that the time is coming when there will be many things that will be disturbing. You will see wars, horrendous wars, even more horrendous than the ones you are seeing now. You will see cruelty like you have never seen it before. You see, I have to allow that to exist so that you might know the good. I have to allow that to exist so that those who commit those acts can be punished.

I will heal your hearts. I will heal the wounds that many of you have suffered because of the mistreatment you received at the hands of others. I can do it right now if you allow me. Hear the words that I say today. You who have ears to hear, hear the words of your maker today. You who have eyes to see ask that I may release the veil from your eyes that you might see beyond the veil. That you will no longer have fear for this life. For it is the life, the life eternal that matters.

Love just as I have loved you. Forgive all people. Ask and I will help you in this process. Believe and it will be done.

May the Lord bless and keep you. May he make his face shine upon you and grant you his peace Amen

| Celebration 2022. 7-18-222 Monday Night Prayer by Evangelist Lorenzo Hill Transcribed by: Patsy Tonin |

Most gracious, loving, heavenly Father, as we come to you in prayer tonight ... we have heard so many things. And we have heard things from a different perspective. But the basis of all that we are, and all that we do on Your behalf, lies in 4 letters. L-O-V-E. The pure love of Christ Jesus embedded within us. Father right now there are little elements of that within each of us.

But Father we need to be completely full of your loving essence. And with that loving essence Father God, which is the basis for everything that we do on Your behalf, and that we do in response to the Holy Spirit. And that we do in response to the sacrifice of Christ Jesus. These are the basis, Father God, for the power that we share with Him.

Jesus has in store for us so much. So, I pray tonight as we go to bed that Your Holy Spirit would rehearse to us those things that are embedded so deeply within us, that keep us from being the righteousness of God here on this earth. That He would allow us to work with Him, as

He exposes these things to us. So that we can release them to Christ Jesus. Because all He wants to do is to help us, not hurt us. So let Him heal you tonight. Let Him be your guide as He establishes within you, that link that needs to be made between where we are now and where God wants us to be.

So, Father I ask for each and every one, that You will tenderly and compassionately work with each one, to help their understanding grow. That they Father God, might see in the things that have been presented today and which will be presented through the rest of the week, how You will empower them. And how they can be empowered. And the strength that lies ahead is not just the strength that they have in their physical bodies, but it is the strength of the power that raised Jesus from the dead. That power Father God resides in us. We have received the gift of eternal life. We are accepted of You.

Let us experience the loving relationship between you and us tonight. Help us to be expecting a visit from You. A visit such that Father God, we will experience the fullness of Your love to the level that we are willing to receive it.

Father, it's time. You told us, it's time for us to make that change. For us to work within the limits of Christ Jesus, which are limitless. To work within the power, who and from which it comes, which is You.

You have told us, You are the source from which we live and move and have our being. Father if we could just get a glimpse of what that means. Teach us tonight.

Guide us into the righteous ways so that Father God, when we walk the streets, people will get a glimpse of the Heavenly. Not because of us but because of You in us.

So, Father God, I thank You. I thank You that You want to transform us from a stumbling, bumbling group into a group who walks steadfastly in purpose, knowing full well that there is no power that can overcome us. Because Father God, You stand before us. You stand beside us. And You stand behind us. And because of that Father God, we have nothing to fear because even if our very lives, these physical lives that we so cling to, are taken. We know that we have a homewith You now and forever more.

So, Father reinforce in us, the power of Your love that we can truly love You with all our heart, mind and strength and love each other as ourselves.

I thank you that Christ Jesus was so willing to sacrifice for each of us. And even now He stands in prayer for each of us, that we might Father God, be Your righteousness here on this earth. Thank you for hearing our prayer.

It is not just my prayer; it is a prayer for many. For all of us, Father, I ask for those who have gone before, and those who are yet to come into the fellowship of Christ Jesus.

In the name of Christ Jesus Amen.

Celebration 2022, 7-20-22 Wednesday Afternoon
by Evangelist Bill Howard
Transcribed by: Linda Stephens

Our Heavenly Father, our loving creator and presence of goodness, we are honored to meet and share as one. We meet in the Spirit of Celebration to open our hearts for Your blessings. You have guided us as a CCM community and have received the joy of praising You and Your presence in our midst. What a wonderful gift of evangelical ministry You have offered us as we seek Your counsel to serve each other and to offer special prayers to You each day. We sense a new empowerment of Your Spirit and calling to extend Your love to an ever-widening community. We are formed around the pattern and direction of the life, message, and the light of Your Son. You have designed us to live for others as we see more clearly Your purposes for Your creation. May we respond faithfully, being thankful, for discovering new ways to serve and experience Your love.

In this prayer we now focus on Your gift of children. We have seen how You have loved

Your Son. You have called us to love our children as You have loved us. We recognize Your desire is for us to not only give physical birth, but to continually guide the growth and development of our own youth inside and outside of our family. What a wonderful way we can fulfill Your mission in us. Especially, in those early years we are given the opportunity to raise each child with the desire to know You and be committed to the purpose You have for them. Our world has not made this task an easy one. Families have broken apart, time and skills to be effective parents or relatives has had to compete with worldly ambitions, addictions, and attractions that offer only selfish desires, passions, and goals. Every generation has had to discover how to raise their children amid these competing interests. Without knowing and living in loving and affirming relationships we find youth faced with loneliness, mental illness, and conflict, internally and socially. We are especially grateful to those who have raised their children with compassion, forgiveness and displaying in wisdom and deed the love shown by Your Son, as led by the Holy Spirit. We pray this morning for a blessing over our culture, personal patterns of life, our attitudes, our family, community, and social relationships. We even extend Your blessings of love will come to those that currently despise and oppose Your loving principles.

As we have prepared, gathered, and worshiped You this week, our hearts turn to the blessings You can offer our older youth, the Generation Z. Just as You have offered the life, and ministry of Your Son, Jesus Christ, we accept the gift of our children, young and old, as a witness of Your love. This generation, blessed with modern technical skills, have a calling to witness of Your presence among peers and connections all over the world. May they search for Your purpose in them. We pray that they will hunger for Your guidance and wisdom. We are becoming aware of how You have blessed us with the ability to love and understand their needs. Each one's life is more valued than the most precious jewel.

Thank you, Heavenly Father, open our eyes for every opportunity we have to offer love to our youth. You have heard our cries and hurt when we realize we have not given our deepest love to them. Even though You have placed us in community, in a family, or with friends to support us when we fail, we know that our missing the mark is overcome by giving us a forgiving heart. Your Grace is forever. Especially, may we be granted an open and repentant heart to receive our youth who return home. May we rejoice when Your love gives us hope, comfort and peace.

Together, CCM as a contemporary ministry can effectively reach out to the emerging generation. We accept Your admonition to serve each other and especially our youth in the most difficult of times. Our challenges are many. Our moments of despair and loss of the love of our youth can be devastating. Yet You have heard our prayers, needs, and longing for healing. Lord, we speak against those selfish forces, the drugs, the despair. May we pray for and lift-up every youth we encounter. Bless us with a desire to share our compassion without ceasing. But Lord, rather than echo the brokenness of our world, this prayer is given birth to prayers of hope. May we recognize You are the hope of this world. We know Your Spirit can heal, inspire, comfort, and bring Your vision of the Kingdom as loving fellowship. Thank You for Your Word. May we be enlightened on how Your Word can inspire truth and love. Thank you for the sacrifice and love of Your Son. Thank you for Your Holy Spirit that can provide counsel, wisdom, and strength to all generations, even when there seems to be no answer. You are faithful.

Today I sense Your loving divine guidance to us as a ministry. We must realize Your love can overcome the impossible. When relationships seem to be torn apart You can replace them with Your promises and healing. Even when there is no love all around, we are reminded of Your atoning love and sense Your caring presence. Your call to us as a ministry is to be an expression of Your DIVINE CARING SPIRIT. Today our world needs to understand the power of Your love and many ways to provide us with CARE. Please Lord, lead us not away from temptation, but may we be set free to help restore in others a wholeness of mind, body, and spirit. As we find our youth lost, and broken hearted, walking away from You, as we see our youth discouraged and alone, may You lead us to give support with a COMPASSIONATE heart. May we learn to discern when, a young one, as well as an adult child, has lost their joy. When we see discrimination, disappointment, loss of self-worth, may we recognize their worth and purpose to You. May we provide hope and speak from an AFFIRMING heart. When drugs have conquered the body and illness has overcome wholeness, may we take the time to build a mutual relationship of support with our youth. May we offer prayers and words of RESTORATION forming confidence, worthiness, and an acceptance. When some say it is hopeless, may we sense the presence of Your Spirit revealing how Your promises can transform life. May You use us as instruments of ENCOURAGEMENT. May our youth have a longing for Your presence in their life and the desire to serve others. May we, Lord, have the discipline and commitment as a body of Your disciples to move forward! May we be mindful of the needs of our youth, friends or foe. May we offer the “unexpected kindness, the sacrificial love and the needed support” to every youth whose eyes are weary and has lost their glowing presence. Lord, we offer ourselves in daily discipline, whether it be our daily journaling, a reflective evening conversation with You or a wave of excitement as we walk together with You through these life moments. May our trust in You be our guiding light.

Heavenly Father, may we embrace Your guidance given to us this day. As CCM we humbly accept the challenges placed before us. We accept Your call to be disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ. Continue to show us how to embrace the forgotten, youth, the families, and broken relationships in our world. May compassion, affirmation, restoration, and encouragement, characterize our relationship with our youth. We commit ourselves to the establishing of Your Kingdom on Earth as it is in Heaven. May the Spirit continue to empower us to be witnesses of Your Son to be in our hearts so our youth will find their hope and joy as a child, teen, and young adult. Bless us as disciples and as a CCM ministry to live the concerns and passion of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen

Celebration 2022, 7-22-2022 Friday Night Evangelist Blessing
by Evangelist Robert Slasor
Transcribed by: Allison Norwood

I need to do a little introduction to what it is that I feel led to share this evening with CCM. I feel God's joyful, joyful blessing upon a people God loves with such deep, deep, understanding, and acceptance and just loves total envelopment of them. I was given the opportunity to be the spokesperson for this Evangelist Blessing. There have been several evangelists who have prayed for you in personal blessing this week in different settings and those are also important. It's good that they are all recorded. I became aware that when I was asked to present the final evangelist blessing upon the CCM movement that it was going to challenge me as probably few blessings of the many, many that I have given have done. So I need to make this introduction to be a part of the blessing. I present that in totality and wherever this goes, Holy Spirit will lead.

We have walked in heaven's blessing this Celebration Week, via Zoom. Caution kept us from in person gathering as God's wisdom directed through the leadership. But God, Christ, and Holy Spirit are not limited by time, place, or circumstances. Indeed the high and holy calling of the Divine to the CCM movement has been helped and shared in worship, classes, testimony, and the prophetic, spiritual praying of the evangelists. On July 2, 2021 at the end of last year's Celebration, Sister Linda Booth prayed a prophetic pray for the 9 evangelists of CCM and their increasing spiritual ministry going into the future of this CCM movement. And then she prayed words of blessing over the CCM community of disciples as she prayed "may they be willing and open to love more deeply, to give more freely. to go courageously where you send them in your name, called to be a light in the darkness, called to do something valuable for your precious people and God said be alert, be open, be present, I am doing something brand new in your midst! Don't you see it? Pay attention on the journey of blessing for I am with you, I love you, I need you to be my instruments of peace, of love, of healing, in my hurting world."

As I prepared the words for this some time ago I felt led to remind you of the prophetic words of the two hymns. It's interesting that in the last two or three days we have used these hymns over and over again. The first one is the "Admonition Hymn" which is Hymn # 604 in Community of Christ Sings. We just sang the words ourselves as it was on the screen. It is a clear and timeless call of God to us in CCM of the divine power that will break forth on the faithful of all faiths who love God without reservation and seek to serve him in healing ministry to his hurting world. I would suggest that you type them out, carry them with you, and prayerfully study the trusting call of God to us to be His people in our day and time. If you really want to go deep within the meaning of admonition spend a few days journaling each verse, read, and listen with your heart, mind, and spirit to the clear call to you personally and to the CCM movement, of the power promised and power delivered by Holy Spirit's presence to you, in you, and from you. The other Hymn I would suggest you spend some prayerful time with is Hymn 636, also from Community of Christ Sings. I was made aware again as I listened tonight to the recording of these words, that God wants so much for you to hear this invitation personally. And the promise in the words of Admonition Hymn that God wants to hold you in his arms as He speaks to your heart.

The Spirit says to every one of you regardless of what you think your situation in life is or if you are spiritually faithful enough, Spirit says I have gifted you and ask you now to let it show. My spirit is flowing through you without any handicap of words or whatever else you might have in limited vocabulary. Whatever it is, My power translates your heart into words that will reach into the heart of many. Do not be afraid. Remember I will not abandon you. All my promises are always true. You are a gifted disciple, called, and chosen. You are my blessed disciples.

You who are here this evening and those that will hear this week's recordings are chosen of God to assist in the powerful work of the emerging Kingdom of Zion in this day. Many different cultures are present in our gathering, many words of counsel have come and prayers have come. You are gifted, called, and chosen - you are mine. God's Spirit says, you witness of My Son Jesus Christ who died for you and for every soul ever created, existing now, or ever will be created. My Son went to the cross to shed his blood so that all may be saved in the Kingdom, all given an opportunity to choose the Kingdom way or another way.

My precious sons and daughters of CCM you have been faithful in your witness of My love. You have learned the joy of singing the songs of praise, and you sing them often and the melody of your heart rises to Me and comes into My heart and I rejoice in you and I rejoice with you. Your heart beats with My heart. You want your presence and nearness to Me and that is the invitation that I am free to enter and be one in your hearts in ways greater than anything you have ever known.

I will touch you as you go with Me. In the moments of darkness, in the moments of struggle I will be present. I will not save you from all the hurts that are out there or all the struggles that you have because I will grow you in the midst of them. And when you have come out of the worst experience of your life, I will shine My light upon you so you can understand, and learn, and see the love that I have for you through it all. You will see why some things happened and needed to happen for your own sanctification and for your own spiritual growing and for your own sense of My divine call to touch those that feel lost and see no way out. You feel My deliverance and you know the value of that deliverance to those who have never known Me; those who have never known what freedom in the Holy Spirit really is. Those are the ones to whom you are called, the prisoners of this world's pain, and abuse, and slavery and whatever other kind of hold in wickedness, wicked persons hold them in. You are called to bear the positive message of hope. You have heard that spoken of this week; speak the hope that lifts spirits and the love that transforms spirits and the peace that brings that sense of intimacy in my divine presence.

I have given you a name it is Mine. You are not CCM you are Jesus Christ's disciples, born again and commissioned. Call yourself by any other name but you first are called My precious disciple, for that is what you are. You are more than a name you give yourself. I give you a name it is beloved disciple of Christ. It is beloved promise to a world that cries out for deliverance. You are My beloved ambassadors of Myself, to those that I call you to and point you to as persons you can touch and will touch. Know that there have been souls created that wait specifically for your touch and for the spiritual gifts you have been created with. I know because I'm timeless. I know of all the events that ever happened. I know the kind of needs those that cry out have, and I know who I have prepared to touch them.

If you feel the urging of My Holy Spirit rest upon you for a ministry outward do not hesitate, for I promise you, and have promised you, and will promise you over and over again, you do not go alone in your power. You go in My power but you go in your love and My love and that is what breaks the walls down. That is what touches hearts. It is not theology. It is not church membership; it is not ideas, it is the presence of My Spirit in you, through you, to them as I bring My healing ministry and saving ministry to them. When you hear the voice calling you to a ministry to specific persons do not hesitate. Humbly, prayerfully, bury your fear behind My promises and go forth in the promises. If I call you to it, I will help you do it in My name, in My power, and for My purpose. I have given you My Spirit as a sign. During this CCM Celebration week, how many times as you think back this week of celebration have you felt the warmth of My Holy Spirit? Write down on a piece of paper the number of times you have felt the flash of Holy Spirit's touch on you: perhaps a song, a word someone spoke, a testimony of First Peoples, whatever it is, once or many times that you felt Spirit touching you. Write that down as a spiritual memory.

This is the promise of God into your future. I have given you My Spirit as a sign and I will touch you in more ways than you can even imagine. You have been fearful to allow me to have full freedom in your life because you look at yourself in self-judgement so often. You look at yourself as what you haven't accomplished and look at the limitations you feel you might have.

Listen to Me my beloved, know My children that in My hands you have no limitation. In My heart and My power you have nothing to hold you back. In the love that flows from Me through you, miracles will happen, and you will watch them unfold. You may not know all the good you have done in this life but in eternity you will know. So, fear not My children, fear not.

Fear comes from the dark side. Fear is what would block you by saying in your mind: you are not worth it, God wouldn't use you, look at the stuff that you have done, look at what you failed to do, and other negative thoughts.

My beloved disciples, there is no sin that you have committed that I cannot absolve and forgive you for. There is no opportunity you have missed that I hold you accountable for.

Opportunities you have missed are learning moments for you and they will help motivate you not to let opportunities go by. That is what learning in the Spirit is about. All that you need in power does not come to you self-made and ready. I do not open your head and just pour in all the growing that you need to do. How would you ever appreciate your growth trail unless you could look back and see the changes that have come in your life. Those changes will continue.

But believe Me My children and listen to Me please: What you are now is what I need NOW.

You don't have to do anything. You want to prepare, you want to be better equipped or more spiritual, fine but that is for another day. What I need from you is what you are now.

Endowed by My Holy Spirit, voicing My love in words and touch and presence. I can send My love out from you into the lives of people you have never seen, or even know what happened. When you are walking with Me in Oneness, My Spirit is in you giving permission to freely flow from you. When you give Me that permission wherever you go, My Spirit flows out of you, and lives feel a lift in that moment. I'm working My miracles in this world. You are one of My miracles I would use to do My work. You will touch lives, the ones that know that you touched them will just thank you and thank you and thank you.

Among your brothers and sisters in this movement there are those that have been called to be givers of My Spirit to you in prophetic and touch ministry. You have been blessed by the leadership of this My people. Hold them up in your heart constantly. They struggle to fulfill their call to mission same as you do; you're in this struggle together but you're also in the joy together. From the struggle comes the blessing and insight and power, endowment power.

Do not fear, I say this to you again do not fear anything that might be coming in the future and do not spend time dwelling on what might happen. Let your present life reflect My work in you and through you in this moment of time. One day at a time My children. You have heard that this week. When you arise in the mornings the first words out of your heart should be, "O God, thank you for another day, may I walk with You, doing that which You want me to do under your Spirit." And start your day then having dedicated your life to that day.

You brought nothing with you. Whatever sin you have committed has been forgiven.

And if you haven't felt forgiven don't limit My presence in you by failing to repent and believe I can forgive. Lay whatever it is, even if it was early life experiences that happened to you that are very horrendous, present them to Me in your prayers for healing. Also pray in that same vein for the one who has done the offending and the hurting it caused. That will set you free, you will carry no memory that still hurts and you will be set free and you will be healed. The memory will still exist but it will have no power over you.

My precious disciples, I want to set you free from all your self-doubt. I want to set you free from any sense or feeling that you are not adequate for the task to this world. If you were not adequate, I would have taken you home long ago. Why do you think you breathe? Why do you think you are alive? Do you think your presence doesn't matter? Why do you think you're gathered in places like this in Celebration? It's because your work is not finished. When it is finished, you will have fulfilled the purpose of your creation that I helped you discover in your human journey on earth. With your agency you chose to follow Me and be My disciple. As you continue to walk with Me in your giftedness and My power, new vision will unfold to you day by day in the journey. You do not leap into Zion. You do not bring to pass Zion in one giant step.

You bring to pass Zion by the Holy Spirit possessing you so that you live and grow in the Zion spirit enjoined with others who are finding the Zion spirit in them and now the community of Zion will come into being. Be quick to forgive, slow to judge, joyful every day.

You are My chosen people for this moment. You are not the only ones so beware that you do not judge My Restoration Church that I have brought into being. Do not judge who someone else is or another movement is as far as being faithful, or in apostasy. Do not judge.

You live your life and let Me take care of My world. I will use you in marvelous ways to bless lives. Believe there is no limitation when I am in you to what you can accomplish for the cause of healing the hurting, speaking hope to those that have lost hope, the lostness of many who live in this world. Many, many things they have and yet they gather. They gather, and they gather, and they are in misery all the time. They need to know they are loved. They need to know that there is something far greater beyond possessions. They need to know you and the testimony that you have. Do not fear if I call them into your presence and the contact with you in what seems like a miraculous way just passing on the street. Whatever opportunity I open to you, know that I matched you for that moment, and to that opportunity and the spiritual gifts you need are right there in you right now. I will bring them back to your mind or I will put them in your mind and the revelation so that you will know what to do and how to do it humbly, humbly, humbly.

My children be humble and full of love. Love without judgment and love all persons.

Practice it, practice forgiving, and practice not holding others accountable for anything. It is not your place to judge, it is My place God says. Your place is to love. The more you can love My creation, the less they will need to repent from in the future. Your love will transform lives.

Your words will transform lives. Your presence will transform lives. This is why I called you.

Enjoy the fellowship when you can gather by electronic means or when you are back together in person. Trust that I am walking with you in the midst of all the things that are happening around you now. Do not fear the future. Your future is in Me, do not fear the future.

And so, my people of Contemporary Christian Ministries, how joyful I am to place My arms around you now and hug you as a body of My disciples. Father places His arms around you also and hugs you as disciples, as those who are yearning, those who are searching, those who are experiencing, and those who are growing. That's the road to Zion. Every faithful step of growing you take will be joy with Me and you'll feel the joy in My heart.

My people, My people, how I love you. When I hung on the cross I saw you. I knew and loved you then. I love you now. I paid for your sins so you don't have to. Always repent and come to Me knowing that forgiveness is as quick as your thought. When you feel the need to repent and do so you are forgiven. It's not the words that you tell me. It's your heart crying out "Oh God I'm sorry for that" and you are set free, free to move on in power.

I bless you. I bless you My disciples, My beloved disciples of CCM gathered by Zoom. As this goes out to many others and they read the message and listen to the recording, My Spirit will touch them and they will feel by the power of the Holy Spirit the truth of what you have heard this evening. I leave this blessing upon your lives from this moment into the future and I do that through the power of Creator God and the sacrifice and love of Son Jesus Christ. Amen

Experience of Renee Smith

During worship time at the Summit, I saw a locomotion train. This was CCM. I saw people jumping off to do ministry. They were rolling out and landing at different elevations. The train was going soooo very fast, and the Lord said, "timing is everything."

I also saw the train going through grass as it was struggling. I then saw the train back on the tracks. I hear him say that CCM was now on track. He also said the train is going to go fast. He's not slowing down. Get on or get off, but make a choice.

I saw people rolling out to do ministry. They were not injured as they rolled out of the train. They carried knapsacks on sticks. In those knapsacks there were gifts of the Spirit. He said that as they were thrown out to the people, the gifts would reproduce like the loaves and fishes. Also he said that in these knapsacks were HIS PRESENCE. His people were carrying HIS PRESENCE.

He said, CCM may look differently than what you expect it to be.

He said, "I'm looking for strict obedience. You must be obedient because that will keep you safe and less disoriented as you embark from the train's high speeds. It may be unnerving and disorienting for those who do not walk in obedience."

He said: It's time. It's a new season. It's a now season. It's a season of creativity.

People rolled out into different elevations: "mountains, plains, valleys." He said that each elevation is critical and sacred.

He asked, "Are you ready?", He answered, "No?" He said, "It's okay, you don't have to be ready. Just say yes. Yes. Yes. Yes. Yes, even though I can't see. Yes, even though I can't hear. Yes, even though I don't think I have gifts. No one will be left behind. NO ONE. You are my peculiar people. But's not because of your style of worship. You are salt. Carry my torch to those who are sightless. My presence transforms.

He said:

I am rolling out newness.

I am rolling out new gifts.

I am rolling out grace.

I am rolling out my harvesters. These harvesters will be carrying my presence.

He also said, "Flip the script, your narrative is being written through choices and words."

He said, "When you shut down the prophetic voice, there will NOT be new growth. There will be death and lukewarm-ness." For the prophetic voice is creation and birth. Additionally, he told me yesterday that CCM had used the prophetic as a way to exhort people and to give messages, but that this season we needed to ALSO FOCUS and be INTENTIONAL about "co-creating" and "birthing" what he wants to have birthed. Thy Kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. This is why He had me start the Watchman Prayer Group. There must be a prayer furnace going constantly. I currently see a war room of generals and soldiers bending over a gameboard and moving pieces around. This prophet release is STRATEGY. We must release the prophetic.

He told me two weeks ago as I was reflecting on the message of the locomotion that "I am getting rid of the chaff."
