Important Notices

Franklin Parking is not responsible for the loss of any vehicle or its contents due to fire, theft, damage, or any other cause. The parking charge does not include bailment, custodial care, or liability for vehicles or their contents.

- Any claims for damage must be submitted in writing before leaving the premises. Claims will not be considered after the vehicle has departed.
- In-and-out privileges are not available on a daily parking ticket.
- Personal checks are not accepted for parking transactions.
- A valid monthly parking permit must be clearly visible on the vehicle at all times while parked. Failure to display a current permit will result in the maximum daily rate being charged.
