

What we've achieved

CHARITIES AGAINST HATE

Working together to combat online hate, here are some of our key achievements.

Guide to Best Practice

Recommendations and ideas for best practice in ethical digital marketing and comms for the third sector.

“ This is a huge issue, one that isn't going away, and one that lots of other people are sitting up and taking notice of - there is a real sense that people want change.”

Product Recommendations

16 recommendations for social media companies to consider in tackling online hate.

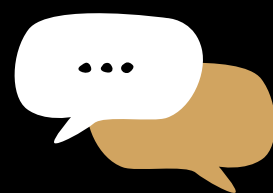

“ [The best thing about Charities Against Hate is] being able to connect with other organisations and champion the involvement of the people we serve in decision-making aspects of the project.”

MP Toolkit

Support for anyone wanting to share their experiences of online hate speech with their MP.

#ShareYourStory guide

A guide on ways to practice telling your story, how to write it down and make a video story.

Experience surveys

Analysed survey data from more than 420 charity staff and their communities.

“ The project is more than just a one off. I like the idea that we can work together to make a change.”
