UPDATE ON CLAUDE RAINEY

I called Claude on 2-04-90 and he said he's not doing good. He can't talk on the phone like he used to. If you call him, please keep it short as it really taxes his strength. He welcomes cards and calls as he is confined to his house during the illness. Pray that his cancer will slow or go into remission. We miss you, Claude, keep up the battle.

SCAVENGER HUNT

On January 13th, a scavenger hunt took place at Daytona Beach. We met at the band shell at 10 a.m. About twenty members showed up at the appointed hour. The rules were to hunt either the beach or within the city limits of Daytona. Prizes would be given for the oldest penny, nickle, dime, quarter, best jewelry and most coins. The hunt would end at 3 p.m. I teamed with new member, Floyd Jones and started hunting like most everyone else along the beach. But after an hour with little to show for our efforts, we drove to a old section of city and recovered many nice coins. We returned at 3 p.m. to join about 12 members that had assembled and compare finds.

Penny Winner: Floyd Jones and Harry Rainey: 1953 pennies; Herb Phillips: 1955.

Nickle: Herb Phillips: 1952; Madeline Corder: 1961; Don Hurtig: 1963.

Dime: Harry Rainey: Three 1966 dimes

Quarter: Charlie Peterson & Lonna Leist: 1965; Ray Leist and Don Hurtig: 1967

Jewelry: Herb Phillips: Silver bracelet
Arlene Shaffer: Ring
Group Coins: Charlie Peterson, 50 coins.

I'd like to thank everyone that attended this hunt and hope that future scavenger hunts will take place when other hunts can't be scheduled. After all it was fun and fellowship among TH'ers added with competition to find that perfect find.

NEWSLETTER EDITOR

A replacement newsletter editor is in the works. I won't disclose who our volunteer is until they make their decision. The format of the newsletter will probably be upgraded as the software will be better than what I use. I'll still assist the new editor with information and filler material.

NEW MEMBERS

Welcome to our new members: Floyd Jones, Joe Murat, Gilbert Young and Jim Blinkhorn.

ANOTHER ARTICLE PUBLISHED

In the Western & Eastern Annual Gold & Silver, 1990 issue, my last trip to Dahlonega, Ga. will be published. Also in the standard April issue of W&E treasure will be my article called "Go Hookah". My wife, Jean will have an article coming out in Treasure magazine this summer. Look for them.
