

Jessica Svensen

Professionally Speaking . . .

As one of the original founders of Waves, Jessica is an owner, a partner and the general manager who also serves our clients as one of our community association agents. Jessica's organizational skills, as well as her capacity to manage a multitude of moving parts is a perfect fit for the fast-paced, complex business of Portfolio Association Management.

With over twenty-five years in the association management industry, Jessica is always looking for solutions that best serve her clients. With higher standards and better service in mind, it has been a career-long goal of Jessica's to be a leader in the industry. Knowing that high tides lift all boats, Jessica has lifted her industry by seeking and receiving numerous credentials and recognitions, including Funky Flamingo awards, galore. She also served Florida communities as a licensed Florida CAM for ten years. Knowing we are only as good as our current performance, Jessica is proud to have led her own company, Waves, to receive the Best in Baldwin County Award, these last two years in a row. She is grateful to the people of Baldwin County for this recognition and their confidence in Waves.

With Jessica's pragmatic, "Everything is figureoutable" approach to needs that arise withing community associations, she leads her team in creating a positive, forward-moving culture, focused on finding solutions to meet every challenge. Jessica is confident that no matter how you got to where you are, she and her team can help you figure it out and get you where you want to be.

Jessica most enjoys educating and elevating others in the industry. She loves bringing out the very best in each individual. Jessica says, "I love to see people I have brought into the industry thriving. Some have even started their own businesses!"

On A Personal Note . . .

Jessica is an Alabama native with a deep love for her home and all that the Alabama Gulf Coast has to offer. She loves to bake, cook and share the food she prepares.

Something you may want to know about Jessica is: If you invite her to hang out and watch a sports event, don't be offended if she says no. She loves going to live sporting events but does not care to watch them on TV. Being an adventurous, fun-loving Gulf Coast girl, Jessica very much enjoys live music and traveling. Jessica says, "I am a firm believer that you can have a good time, with the right attitude, no matter where you are."

Jessica's primary volunteer work is with Impact 100 and AGCCAO (Alabama Gulf Coast Association Organization). For many years, she volunteered with the Chamber of Commerce and says that while she enjoyed it immensely, she regrets not having the time to get back to it.
