5 things to think about before you buy a home

1. Understand the costs involved

Buying a property will likely be the biggest purchase you'll make in your lifetime.

Review all the costs involved and create a list of expenses to help with your budgeting.

2. Compare home loans and interest rates

With so many options available, it can be hard to choose a loan that's right for you.

At Lendi, we can compare thousands of options from 25 Australian lenders and offer expert advice to fulfil your needs.

3. Apply for home loan pre-approval

Home loan pre-approval is the borrowing amount a lender is likely to approve you for.

Pre-approval can help during your property search as it gives you an indication of how much you can afford to pay on a property.

4. Know what you want

It's important to have a good idea of what kind of property you're looking for.

Apartment or house? Owner occupied or investment? Which area do you want to buy in?

Our property report tool is a great way to access information on millions of properties Australia-wide.

5. Get help from the experts

No one knows home loans like the experts. If you have any questions, our Home Loan Specialists are here to help.
