

Safety Is the Most Important Priority Right Now!

This entire treatment revolves around one central idea: You need to stay safe. The good news is that you can learn to cope safely, no matter what negative life events come your way. Nothing has to make you use substances or engage in any other high-risk behavior.

EXAMPLES

Life situation. You lose your job; your mother criticizes you; you wake up depressed; someone offers you cocaine; your dog dies; you dissociate; your partner gives you a hard time; you have no money; you find out you have a tumor; you have a flashback; you can't sleep.

Your coping. This is everything! No matter what happens in your life, you can cope safely.

Unsafe Coping	versus	Safe Coping
Use substances	versus	Ask for help
Hurt yourself (e.g., cutting, burning)	versus	Take good care of your body
Let someone harm you	versus	Set a boundary in a relationship
Act on impulse	versus	Rethink the situation

The goal of this treatment is to help you become more aware of how you are coping and to teach you how to cope more safely. That's it!

STAGES OF HEALING FROM PTSD AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE

For both PTSD and substance abuse, safety is the first stage in healing, according to a great deal of research and clinical wisdom. The stages are as follows:

1. Safety. This is the phase you are in now. The goals are to free yourself from substance abuse, stay alive, build healthy relationships, gain control over your feelings, learn to cope with day-to-day problems, protect yourself from destructive people and situations, not hurt yourself or others, increase your functioning, and attain stability.

2. Mourning. Once you are more safe, you may need to grieve about the past—about what your trauma and substance abuse did to you. You may need to cry deeply to get over the losses and pain you experienced: loss of innocence, loss of trust, loss of time.

3. Reconnection. After letting yourself experience mourning, you will find yourself more willing and able to reconnect with the world in joyful ways: thriving, enjoying life, able to work and relate well to others. You will get to this stage if you can establish safety now!
