A great professor who managed to get the lessons across with ease to the entire class and also got along well with the entire room.
Amazing teacher. He always had everything ready to go, very organized. I really liked how although he mentioned how he was also a student, we never heard ANY complaints about how hard it is to juggle both or how he is stressed or anything. He was always very professional, and even if he was stressed with other things going on, he sure didn't look like it because he always put on a put together look/face. Also very respectful towards students. Slowly opened up a lot of our eyes and made us realize things that we had never even thought twice about. Only type of improvement or critique I would make is after students participate, kind of validate their response a little more because it encourages them to participate again. I just noticed a couple of times that after a student said something it was just like "ok" and we moved onto a different topic and the student didn't participate further. But other times when you say "yes exactly" or "your on the right track/ getting there" I know it's silly middle school teacher responses, but it also makes the students more intrigued in what your talking about!! Thank you for a great semester !!
Awesome professor, makes class fun and interesting!
Enjoyed your teaching style. Found it was kept short and to the point which I like.
Great class just some of the readings were lengthy and hard to balance with 5 other classes and out of school activities like work, I would say maybe make class more lecture based or power point based but very interesting and thought provoking class
Great professor love in class discussions AMAZINGGGGGGG
Great professor, the course structure was very well planned out.
Great teacher! Knows his subject very well and teaches in an interesting way that captures your focus. He made assignments very easy to do well on and cared that we improved on our writing skills by helping to tell us how to improve.
Great teacher, was able to keep the class entertained by opening it up for discussion a lot.
He is a great instructor. He is very passionate about teaching and sociology. The one issue is sometimes he gets too passionate and does not always finish discussing the lesson.
He is an amazing professor and really cares about his students.
He was amazing!! Definitely one of the best professors I had this semester. He was very clear in conveying information, engaged all the students, and left very helpful feedback on all of our papers that was extremely beneficial. I have nothing but good things to say about him. I truly enjoyed his class.
He was very energetic and fun! Great discussions in class!
He's an awesome professor. He makes class interesting and fun. He genuinely cares about his students. I've really enjoyed his class.
I thought Professor Oliveira was one of my best professors this semester and I really enjoyed this class.
I would rather have the quizzes after lectures, and the reason why is because I have a tendency to misinterpret the actual meaning of the information within the text.
Is very passionate about the subject matter which is critical in maintaining interest within the course. Communicated the ideas, projects, and topics well and provided a unique environment in which students were able to learn.
Mr. O was an excellent professor who clearly is very dedicated to sociology and teaching us. He was understanding and adjusted the course schedule when conflicts came up and was very quick to help any of the students in my class with their writing or otherwise.
Overall he is a very engaging teacher and if any student does not get the content he takes time to help everyone understand and won't move on until they get it and he does a good job portraying the information in a way everyone can understand
Such a nice and helpful professor! You can tell he has a passion for what he teaches, so it makes the class more willing to engage in it. But, I do think he might be too lenient with students at times. Overall, I really enjoyed having Prof. O this semester.
Very engaging and you can tell that he really cares about the subject and about his students.
Very good teacher.
Very knowledgeable and you can tell he cares about the people taking the class. Open to discussion which is something every professor needs to be able to do.
Very nice class, i enjoyed taking this course with you.

Enjoyed the group discussions which allowed me to make connections which then helped me on the exams.

Good class

Interesting course

Interesting curriculum with good information.

The class has been really interesting and informative.

The course is highly interesting and Professor Oliveira made the course structure and lessons fun and interactive.

The course was decent the work was not to over demanding and the quizzes are a nice size and not to long since we take one every week

Very interesting
