Pastor's Notes

As I prepare for the New Year, I am taking a little bit of time off. By the time you read this, this will have already occurred. I am bugging out, hitting the road to places unknown. I will put on some of my favorite praise music for the drive, take along my Bible, some devotionals and a notebook.

I love my job, my calling. Nothing speaks to me as much as digging into God's word and being led by God to put them in a form to share on Sundays, Wednesdays and other times throughout the week. But there comes a time when I need to look beyond the studies I am doing and just seek God. No particular study, no particular person to speak with, no administrative things to consider. The calendar is put away for a few days and it is only God I seek. Certainly He shows Himself to be strong in my life in multiple ways throughout my calling but a fresh wash of His presence is needed and wanted at times.

I like to spend time remembering how "He brought me up out of the pit of destruction, out of the miry clay, and He set my feet upon a rock, making my footsteps firm." (Psalm 40:2) And how "He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise." (Psalm 40:3a) In order to be set on His path for my life I need to look back and remember...remember the journey He has had me on and how blessed I and Michal have been all along this journey. We have never been in need. We have been provided for, protected, stimulated towards growth and many other blessings that if I ponder, would fill a book.

"How blessed is the person who has made the Lord their trust...Many, O Lord my God, are the wonders which You have done, and Your thoughts towards us; there is none to compare with You. If I would declare them and speak of them, they would be too numerous to count." (Psalm 40:4a, 5)

Maybe this little trip might be a good journey for each of you to take as we head into a new year. Put everything aside, check out, take a drive short or far and be still and know that God has been good to you. I bet if you do you will have a new song put into your heart. That is what we need in this busy, confusing world isn't it? A new song of praise bursting forth out of our hearts.

As you take this journey, the following truth will overwhelm you and strengthen you to keep moving forward with God in this life. "You, O Lord, will not withhold Your compassion from me; Your lovingkindness and Your truth will continually preserve me!" (Psalm 40:11) What a great, loving and compassionate God we serve!

In much love, Pastor Darrel

January 9th & 16th at 6:00pm

We will have two classes; the first on what we believe at WCC, the second on the ministries and structure of the church. We decided to have two classes so there would be plenty of time for us to get to know you and you to get to know us and ask questions. Please pray if this is something God would have you. Attending the classes doesn't mean you are joining but it gives each person an opportunity to get to know the church better, it's doctrine and flow of ministry. You can sign up on the flap in the bulletin, email the office or just show up! Please let us know if you would like for us to have babysitting available.

WCC Board News

Dec. 14, 2021

Meeting was called to order. Pastor Darrel led devotional from Galatians 6:9, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we don't give up." We need to continue to fill up on God's word, so to not give up before reaching the harvest for God's glory.

Jaime Rivera reported 50-55 kids at Kingdom Kidz each Wednesday night. Family night saw 100 kids and family members. Each family went home with a Bible. Jaime expressed a need for more volunteers to help with children's church and children's message. Epic Youth's move to Sunday mornings have seen 6-12 teens participating. FCA at the school is still going strong.

Jeremy Reed reported giving for the month of November at $12,231. Average attendance was 93, on-line viewing at 112 average. Pastor Darrel reported on ongoing ministry, helping with Kingdom Kidz, meeting and calling on people.

The board approved and hired Priscilla Franzen as new church secretary. She resigned from the board in order to take this position. (Thank you, Sarah Reed for your 2 years of great service!) Some discussion occurred concerning turning the lot north of the church into a parking area. More discussion and prayer will go into this.
