

FOUNDERS BIOS

DAVE VOTH

A 30 year sports industry veteran, Dave is recognized as a sports industry leader, innovator and prolific entrepreneur in new event creation and rights management.

With a global footprint of sport industry success, Dave believes passionately that sport has the power to unify, inspire, heal and change lives for the best.

Dave helped create the World Triathlon Corporation's IronMan Triathlon, the NFL's Quarterback Challenge and the NBA's Who's Got Game. He also was critical in founding the Premier Cup League, Champions Cup, the OCR event series and reality television show, Tough X Rough. Dave also served as Singapore's Senior Director of Sports. In this role he helped develop the Singapore Grand Prix F1Night Race, the 1st Youth Olympic Games and World Cup Rugby qualifiers.

STEVEN WULF

Steven has more than a decade of experience in youth sports. He is currently President of PR Sports, a sports rights management firm.

Steven oversees market growth and operations of Under the Lights, powered by Under Armour and also serves on the Board for San Antonio Pop Warner. His experience includes: President, San Antonio Saints; Advisory Board for Youth Coaches, Mays YMCA; Board Member, Southwest Region Pop Warner; Chairman, SA Ambassadors; Advisor CYSPW.

Prior to committing his full-time career to youth sports, Steven spent 10 years in healthcare, most recently overseeing strategic growth and innovation for one of the nation's largest healthcare firms. Steven brings to ArmourZones a great strategic mind and a love for sport.

RACHAEL KAUFMAN

Rachel is ArmourZone's public account manager and also plays a large role in ArmourZone's curriculum development.

As an elementary PE teacher at NEISD in San Antonio, Rachel has deep experience in youth fitness including coaching recreational and competitive gymnastics, weight training and high performance sports training. Rachel is a key team member as ArmourZones develops its curriculum, games and movement fundamentals.

Rachel is also a leader and active member in TAHPERD. As TAHPERD's San Antonio Area representative Rachel knows that providing fun and safe learning environments for children and athletes is critical to well-being.

Rachel prides herself in her ability to deliver passion, creativity, fun, energy and expertise in health, physical education, and the development of young athletes. Rachel is excited to be a part of the ArmourZones' team and looks forward to making a difference in the lives of children and athletes with the safety and versatility that ArmourZones offers.

KARL GREISSINGER

Karl is an international environmental energy, trading and commercial lawyer and businessman. Karl has over 20 years of private and public company business and legal experience.

Prior to co-founding ArmourZones, Karl led and managed operating and legal teams. Karl's experience includes Operations, M&A, capital and strategic projects, global trading, shipping, marketing, logistics and litigation.

Many many moons ago Karl played rugby union at UCLA and the University of Queensland. He has volunteer coached youth soccer and rugby.

ERIC HUBER

Eric has been an inventor and innovator for over 40 years. He has an innate ability to identify needs and his keen imagination and creative drive continually motivates him to develop new products with solutions to everyday problems.

Eric designs commercial playgrounds for municipalities, school districts, world-class amusement parks. Eric loves being hands-on, from the ground up. This includes his giving-back to communities such as rebuilding public school playgrounds in New Orleans after Katrina and in low-income areas of California.

Eric is critical to the ArmourZone's team - he is constantly looking at how things work, don't work, and looking for ways to make life a little easier and safer.