

PhotoArts Newsletter

~Welcome & Happy New Year~

This year I am launching a monthly newsletter, covering announcements, future events and new art news. It will be a great way for me to stay connected with my collectors or anyone who may be interested in following my work, projects and travel. This month's image is called "The Golden Hour" and is part of one of my current projects called "Postcards". The idea for the project came from my interest in the postcard, it's history and my family's collection. As I write each month, you'll see other finished pieces included in the project, as well as works in progress. Many of the images are from actual locations, embellished with birds, flowers, elements and textures. Other designs are places I imagine during daydreams or creative work sessions. I look forward to sharing more of my creative process with you on a monthly basis.

You are receiving this letter because you have purchased artwork from me in the past or expressed interest in my work. If for some reason you prefer not to receive my news, just let me know. Until next month, take care and stay warm! To see more, click on my website link. <https://suemerrittphotography.com>
