

PhotoArts Journal

Welcome, dear readers to the April edition. This month I post my upcoming exhibits for the remainder of the year. I want to thank you for all the positive feedback you have sent my way. It's a great feeling to hear that you find interest in my work and process.

May-June

-Creekside Place Gallery-

102 Maple Street,
Evansville, WI

A solo exhibit, "The Air We Breathe" , studies our connection with nature and the outdoors.

September-October

-New Health Chiropractic-

2690 Research Park Dr. Unit J,
Fitchburg, WI

A selection from my "Daydreams" collection.

November-December

-Oasis Cafe-

2690 Research Park Dr. Unit E,
Fitchburg , WI

Returning for November through December, I will be exhibiting many of my photographic compositions created from my travels and my connection with nature.

What: Which artworks do I exhibit? I choose a collection or curate according to theme.

Where and When: Each new year I plan quarterly, in reverse. Starting with December and working backward, I pencil in events or exhibits, allowing time throughout the year for creating new art, learning new techniques, making prints and framing. My day planner and the “reminders” app are my constant companions. Why? Because I love it. What could be better? Well, maybe a good round of golf once in awhile...

Looking forward to seeing you:

Friday May 8th
